Le Prix Nobel:

Le Prix Nobel de Littérature Et L'Europe The Nobel Prize for Literature and Europe Katarzyna Wolowska, Nikol Dziub, Augustin Voegelé, 2021-11-12 L'attribution du prix Nobel de littérature avec le cortège de revendications et de fiertés qui l'accompagne conduit chaque année un réajustement de la carte européenne et mondiale des littératures réajustement qui presque toujours révèle des conflits de valeurs sous-jacents. De cette question y a-t-il harmonie ou discordance entre l'idéal européen voire mondialiste qui semble indissociable du Nobel et la cartographie réelle des Prix Nobel de littérature. Ou si l'on préfère comment le prix Nobel réinvente-t-il chaque année sa légitimité au sein de l'économie européenne et mondiale de la littérature afin de demeurer la hauteur d'un présent culturel toujours plus complexe et plus réfractaire aux catégorisations disciplinaires comme nationales. Les Prix Nobel Nobelstiftelsen, 1926 Vol for 1901 has a sketch of Alfred Nobel and his works by P. T. Cleve. The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature Paul Tenngart, 2023-10-05 An exploration of the history, ambitions and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature as it gained a central position in 20th century global literary culture. Few scholars would deny that the Nobel Prize is the most prestigious literary award in the world. But what mechanisms made it possible for 18 Swedish intellectuals to become the world's most influential literary critics? Paul Tenngart argues that the Nobel Prize in literature has become a special kind of international canonization exerted from a non-central, semi-peripheral position: the award sometimes confirms and reinforces hierarchical relations between literary languages and cultures and sometimes disturbs established patterns of dominance and dependence. Drawing from a wide range of contemporary theories and methods, this multifaceted history of the Nobel Prize questions how the Swedish Academy has managed to keep the prize's global status through all the violent international crises of the last 120 years; how the selection of laureates shaped the idea of universal literary values and defined literary quality across languages and cultures; and what impact the prize has had on the distribution and significance of particular works, literatures and languages. The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature explores the history and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature from the first award in 1901 through recent controversies involving Bob Dylan and MeToo, arguing that the prize is a unique performative act that has been and still is central in our continual and collective construction of world literature.

Russian Émigrés in the Intellectual and Literary Life of Interwar France Leonid Livak, 2010-07-01 In a pioneering exploration of the intellectual and literary exchange between Russian migrants and French intelligentsia in the 1920s and 1930s, Leonid Livak provides an impressively comprehensive bibliographic overview of a veritable who's who of Russian intellectuals and literati, listing all the material published by Russian migrants or on topics pertaining to them during the period under study. Focusing attention on a largely ignored chapter of European cultural history, this volume challenges historical assumptions by demonstrating processes of cultural cross-fertilization and illuminates the precedents Russians set for political exiles in the twentieth century. A remarkable achievement in scholarship, Russian Migrants in the Intellectual and

Literary Life of Inter War France is a valuable resource for admirers and researchers of French and Russian culture and European intellectual history

Jean-Paul Sartre: A Bibliography of International Criticism Robert Wilcocks, 1975 A large comprehensive compilation of journalism and international criticism of the works and activities of Jean Paul Sartre The work covers Sartre's stormy career from 1937 to 1975 containing nearly 700 000 entries and over 3 200 authors

Between the New Country and the Old World Erin E. Edgington, 2025-09-12 Poet and provocateur William Chapman 1850 1917 wrote patriotic verse recounting the history of New France envisioning a glorious future for its descendants Despite his many literary achievements he was a two time laureate of the Académie française and a nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Chapman is more often remembered for his explosive feud with Louis Fréchette a rivalry that pitted the two national poets against one another and played out in vicious invective across the pages of Quebec newspapers Chapman's lifelong quest to glorify French Canada and accumulate literary prestige in North America and Europe positioned him squarely between the new country and the old world Over the course of his forty year career Chapman published five collections of poetry Les Québécoises 1876 Les Feuilles d'érable 1890 Les Aspirations 1904 Les Rayons du Nord 1909 and Les Fleurs de givre 1912 whose very titles underscore his devotion to French Canadian identity as well as his literary ambition Integrating close readings of Chapman's verse with archival material related to his writing life Erin Edgington revisits his full oeuvre on its own terms and in context discerning the particular ways Chapman expressed the ideas of literary value and national literature that motivated him from a young age from juvenilia like Les Mines d'or de la Beauce 1881 to his polemical essays and his unfinished magnum opus L'opéra canadienne Between the New Country and the Old World challenges the prevailing narrative that has labelled Chapman a second rate forgettable poet showing how his life and work reveal important insights into literary fame poetics in a transitional moment at the turn of the century and the history of French literature in North America
