Life Science Paper 1 Memorandum 21 November 2014:

Making Ukraine Olena Palko, Constantin Ardeleanu, 2022-05-15 Russia's illegal annexation of Crimea in 2014 and the ongoing war in eastern Ukraine have brought scholarly and public attention to Ukraine's borders. Making Ukraine aims to investigate the various processes of negotiation, delineation and contestation that have shaped the country's borders throughout the past century. Essays by contributors from various historical fields consider how, when and under what conditions the borders that historically define the country were agreed upon. A diverse set of national and transnational contexts are explored with a primary focus on the critical period between 1917 and 1954. Chapters are organized around three main themes: the interstate treaties that brought about the new international order in Eastern Europe in the aftermath of the world wars; the formation of the internal boundaries between Ukraine and other Soviet republics; and the delineation of Ukraine's borders with its western neighbours. Investigating the process of bordering Ukraine in the post-Soviet era, contributors also pay close attention to the competing visions of future relations between Ukraine and Russia. Through its broad geographic and thematic coverage, Making Ukraine illustrates that the dynamics of contemporary border formation cannot be fully understood through the lens of a sole state frontier or ideology and sheds light on the shared history of territory and state formation in Europe and the wider modern world.

Technological Innovation in Legacy Sectors

William B. Bonvillian, Charles Weiss, 2015-08-18 The American economy misses opportunities for innovation, growth and job creation because of a neglected problem: the resistance to innovation from legacy sectors like energy, manufacturing and health care, which constitute most of our economy. The book offers systematic strategies to overcome the structural obstacles to innovation in critically important legacy sectors.

Crisis Communication and Crisis Management Burton St. John

III, Yvette E. Pearson, 2016-08-01 Crisis Communication and Crisis Management: An Ethical Approach is the only text on the market to provide students with the integration of ethical inquiry into the fundamentals of crisis communication. Authors Burton St. John III and Yvette E. Pearson combine comprehensive coverage of the key skills, concepts and theories of crisis communication with an extensive collection of contemporary case studies, giving students a strong understanding of the essential role that communicators play in moments of crisis. Students are encouraged to build upon their communication and ethical decision-making skills using a variety of stakeholder inventories, hypothetical scenarios, discussion questions and professional profiles. Students will also gain exposure to a mixture of discrete and ongoing crises, preparing them to manage both one-time crises and continuing crises.

Data Management Margaret E. Henderson, 2016-10-25 Libraries organize information and data is information, so it is natural that librarians should help people who need to find, organize, use or store data. Organizations need evidence for decision-making; data provides that evidence. Inventors and creators build upon data collected by others. All around us, people need data. Librarians can help increase the relevance of their library to the research and education mission of their institution by learning more about data and how to manage it. Data Management will guide readers through Understanding data management basics and best practices Using the reference interview to help with data management Writing data management plans for grants Starting and growing a data management service Finding collaborators inside and outside the library Collecting and using data in different disciplines The European Union in the 21st Century Nikolaos Zahariadis, 2023-08-24 The European Union in the 21st Century takes a fresh look at a complex and ever changing organization by examining its pursuit of two very different objectives power security and political weight and plenty economic growth and social welfare Nikolaos Zahariadis aims to help students understand these two objectives and how the tension between them affects different issue areas illuminating how each objective represents a different perspective on what the EU is and what it does The book also introduces students to the systematic thinking that political scientists employ to see the connections between policies institutions and actors By unpacking the various perspectives students will gain greater insight into how policymakers think and why EU leaders make the kinds of decisions they do Oregon Historical Quarterly, 2019 Islamic Ecumene David S. Powers, Eric Tagliacozzo, 2023-11-15 The essays in Islamic Ecumene address the ways in which Muslims from Morocco to Indonesia and from sub Saharan Africa to the steppes of Uzbekistan are members of a broad cultural unit Although the Muslim inhabitants of these lands speak dozens of languages represent numerous ethnic groups and practice diverse forms of Islam they are united by shared practices and worldviews shaped by religious identity To highlight these commonalities the co editors invited a team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine Muslim societies in comparative and interconnected ways The result is a book that showcases ethics education architecture the arts modernization political resistance marriage divorce and death rituals Using the insights and methods of historians anthropologists literary critics art historians political scientists and sociologists Islamic Ecumene seeks to understand Islamic identity as a dynamic phenomenon that is reflected in the multivalent practices of the more than one billion people across the planet who identify as Muslims The 1970 UNESCO and 1995 UNIDROIT Conventions on Stolen or Illegally Transferred Cultural Property, 2024-02-06 The illicit traffic in cultural objects is a grave concern to the general public and international community The resulting cultural damage fuels debates on how best to regulate the trade in cultural objects and inform legal responses at all levels for the protection of movable cultural heritage Treaties concerning the treatment of cultural objects during peacetime and war represent some of the earliest multilateral initiatives on cultural heritage in the modern era They also remain some of the most deeply contested representing shifting fault lines within the international community Authored by leading scholars and practitioners from around the world this Commentary is the first to cover the two leading multilateral treaties on movable cultural heritage in one volume the Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property adopted by UNESCO in 1970 and the Convention on Stolen or Illegally Exported Cultural Objects adopted by UNIDROIT in 1995 This Commentary is designed to be the authoritative text for academics lawyers policymakers and diplomats on the protection and regulation of cultural objects Encompassing both public and private international law rules on the trade in cultural objects it provides a detailed historical and thematic overview Drawing on the travaux préparatoires and intergovernmental and state practice over the last half century the Commentary provides an article by article analysis of the interpretation and application of these treaties The texts 1970 UNESCO and 1995 UNIDROIT Conventions are examined in the working context of other culture conventions including the World Heritage Convention and the Intangible Heritage Convention as well as related fields of international law such as international humanitarian law international criminal law human rights law and international economic law The volume also offers a critical examination of current trends and future directions which are informing the field
