others this profoundly human exploration of autofiction and advocacy in Francophone Caribbean literature study does not succumb to the temptation of theory that is she does not demand texts illustrate a rigid theoretical frame the reverse is true throughout the study Cilas Kemedjio University of Rochester Larrier breaks new ground in analyzing first person narratives by five Francophone Caribbean writers Joseph Zobel Patrick Chamoiseau Gisele Pineau Edwidge Danticat and Maryse Conde that manifest distinctive interaction among narrators protagonists characters and readers through a layering of voices languages time sources and identities Employing the Martinican combat dance danmye as a trope the author argues that these narratives can be read as testimony to the legacy of slavery colonialism and patriarchy that denied Caribbean people their subjectivity In chapters devoted to Zobel Chamoiseau Pineau Danticat and Conde who come from Martinique Guadeloupe and Haiti Larrier probes the presence construction and strategy of the first person narrator which sometimes shifts within the text itself Providing a perspective different from European travel literature these texts deliberately position the I as a witness and or performer who articulates experiences ignored or misinterpreted by sojourners more widely circulated chronicles While not purporting to speak for others the I is concerned with transmitting what he or she saw heard experienced or endured therefore disrupting conventional representations of the Francophone Caribbean Moreover in modeling authenticity and agency autofiction is also a form of advocacy Les Deux mousses... Louis Rousselet,1882
