Le Passager Clandestin:

Le Passager Clandestin, Etc Georges Simenon, 1947 Le Passager Clandestin. The Stowaway. Translated ... by Nigel Ryan Georges Simenon, Nigel RYAN, 1957 Exile, Non-Belonging and Statelessness in Grangaud, Jabès, Lubin and Luca Greg Kerr, 2021-06-07 At least since the Romantic era poetry has often been understood as a powerful vector of collective belonging The idea that certain poets are emblematic of a national culture is one of the chief means by which literature historicizes itself inscribes itself in a shared cultural past and supplies modes of belonging to those who consume it But what then of the exiled migrant or translingual poet How might writing in a language other than one's mother tongue complicate this picture of the relation between poet language and literary system What of those for whom the practice of poetry is inseparable from a sense of restlessness or unease suggesting a condition of not being at home in any one language even that of their mother tongue These questions are crucial for four French language poets whose work is the focus of this study Armen Lubin 1903-74 Gh. rasim Luca 1913-94 Edmond Jabès 1912-91 and Michelle Grangaud 1941 Ranging across borders within and beyond the Francosphere from Algeria to Armenia to Egypt to Romania this book shows how a poetic practice inflected by exile statelessness or non belonging has the potential to disrupt long held assumptions of the relation between subjects the language they use and the place from which they speak Le convenzioni internazionali della navigazione marittima, interna e aerea Giorgio Righetti, Massimiliano Rimaboschi, 2008 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard Conference International Maritime Committee, 1962 Ethics of Description Matt Reeck, 2023-09-29 Ethics of Description The Anthropological Dispositif and French Modern Travel Writing follows the development of a minor tradition in French literature where metropolitan authors traveling abroad demonstrate their awareness of the ethical conundrums of representing world peoples During the colonial modern era currents of anthropological thought and representational practice

are identifiable throughout society and across literature the arts and the sciences Collectively they can be theorized as belonging to a dispositif the anthropological dispositif The modernization of anthropology serves as an ambivalent interlocutor for the realizations of the writers studied in this book about the difficulties of describing cultural realities that lie largely outside their ken Anthropology motivates new literary representational strategies that are alternatively in keeping with scientific mandates or operate against them Forty images are analyzed alongside literary works A postcolonial chapter shows how the ethical awareness of the colonial modern authors studied have impacted minority self representation in contemporary France

Mobility and Geographical Scales Guillaume Drevon, Vincent Kaufmann, 2023-08-01 The concept of mobility has grown enormously over the last two decades A large part of the social sciences has been interested in the different forms of mobility from a wide variety of spatial and temporal scales This book presents the different spatial and temporal scales of mobility and the way in which they form a system by associating them with essential and original research objects It provides an in depth review of scientific knowledge a perspective on major societal issues analytical tools and a discussion on the main current academic debates The authors highlight the need to take into account both the spatial and temporal scales of mobility in order to address contemporary environmental and societal issues The book invites us to think about the entanglement of these different scales from the analysis of rhythms by founding a rhythmology of contemporary mobilities
