Life Science September 2014 Memo:

William Watson Cheyne and the Advancement of Bacteriology Charles DePaolo, 2016-10-03 William Watson Cheyne 1852-1932 a surgeon by training and a student of Joseph Lister was a prominent British bacteriologist who published 60 papers and 13 monographs from 1879 to 1927 A proponent of the idea that bacteriology and medicine were interdependent disciplines he investigated the causes and treatment of wound infections tuberculosis cholera tetanus and gangrene In 1897 he organized an historical outline of 19th century bacteriology in five landmark periods of discovery each defined by the work of an influential figure This study documents his contributions to the history of microbiology and describes his activities as a laboratory investigator clinician surgeon translator editor and educator Ensuring National Biosecurity Carole R Baskin, Alan Zelicoff, 2016-02-03 Ensuring National Biosecurity Institutional Biosafety Committees reviews the various responsibilities and associated challenges Institutional Biosafety Committees IBCs face and proposes changes that may help improve this system and increase national biosecurity and worker safety In recent years IBCs in academic and other institutions have been tasked with increasing levels of responsibility overseeing work with recombinant genetic material and hazardous agents IBC members often lack the training to effectively ensure that the work performed is truly safe for scientists and the general community and so increasingly rely upon the expertise of the researchers themselves With the proposed US dual use research policies soon to be implemented this strain may increase This book provides readers with the necessary information to be able to enhance national biosecurity within the US EU Australia New Zealand Japan and more Ensuring National Biosecurity is as an invaluable reference for biosafety professionals or for researchers who need to understand the regulatory landscape that impacts their research Examines and assesses the current state of Institutional Biosafety Committees IBCs Collates contributions from world renowned experts in fields as diverse as research compliance law and astrobiology Reflects an international perspective on regulatory biosecurity and biosafety NASA Technical Memorandum , 1988 Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria Weimer, 2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity

A Minor Revolution Adam Benforado, 2023-02-07 A revelatory investigation into how America is failing its children and an urgent manifesto on why helping them is the best way to improve all of our lives from the New York Times bestselling author of Unfair: The New Science of Criminal Injustice Compelling an extremely sympathetic and worthy attempt to protect kids Benforado has written a book that reads like a manifesto His ideas are bold to the point and ambitious The Atlantic At the dawn of the twentieth century a bright new age for children appeared on the horizon with progress on ending child labor providing public education combating indigence promoting wellness and creating a juvenile justice system But a hundred years on the promised light has not arrived Today more than eleven million American children live in poverty and more than four million lack health insurance Each year we prosecute thousands of kids as adults while our schools crumble We deny young people any political power while we fail to act on the issues that matter most to them racism inequality and climate change Through unforgettable stories law professor Adam Benforado draws a vivid portrait of our neglect We are there when Ariel is placed in an orphanage after her parents are locked away for transporting marijuana when Harold first gazes in disbelief upon the immaculate lawn of an elite private school after a childhood of asphalt play yards when Wylie is hit with a paddle by his public school principal as punishment for taking a moment of silence to protest gun violence When Tyler runs for governor at age seventeen we are also there to witness the extraordinary capacities of young people Our disregard for children s rights is not simply a moral problem it s also an economic and social one The root cause of nearly every major challenge we face from crime to poor health to unemployment can be found in our mistreatment of kids But in that sobering truth is also the key to changing our fate as a nation Drawing on the latest research on the value of early intervention investment and empowerment A Minor Revolution makes the urgent case for putting children first in our budgets and policies in how we develop products and enact laws and in our families and communities Childhood is the window of opportunity for all of us
