Explanatory Models, Unit Standards, and Personalized Learning in Educational Measurement William P. Fisher Jr.,Paula J. Massengill,2022-10-15 The papers by Jack Stenner included in this book document the technical details of an art and science of measurement that creates new entrepreneurial business opportunities Jack brought theory instruments and data together in ways that are applicable not only in the context of a given test of reading or mathematics ability but which more importantly catalyzed literacy and numeracy capital in new fungible expressions Though Jack did not reflect in writing on the inferential constructive processes in which he engaged much can be learned by reviewing his work with his accomplishments in mind A Foreword by Stenner s colleague and co author on multiple works William P Fisher Jr provides key clues concerning a how Jack s understanding of measurement and its values aligns with social and historical studies of science and technology and b how recent developments in collaborations of psychometricians and metrologists are building on and expanding Jack s accomplishments This is an open access book

Competency-Based Education Rose L. Colby,2019-01-02 Competency Based Education introduces educators to a new model for anytime anywhere schooling and provides tools and curriculum resources for redesigning the traditional structures of K 12 schools Based on pioneering work across multiple states the book shows how educators can design central elements of competency based education including performance tasks personal learning plans and grading systems to meet the needs and interests of all students Rose L Colby provides critical tools for creating these elements in collaborative teams and engaging stakeholders such as educators parents and community members The book incorporates case studies and voices from the field and examines the variety of competency models that schools have adopted highlighting the benefits for students Competency Based Education provides a much needed resource at a time when states districts and schools are working to implement competency based models and experimenting with new accountability systems that include evidence of learning beyond standardized tests

Assessing Writing to Support Learning Sandra Murphy,Peggy O'Neill,2022-11-08 In this book authors Murphy and O Neill propose a new way forward moving away from high stakes test based writing assessment and the curriculum it generates and toward an approach to assessment that centers on student learning and success Reviewing the landscape of writing assessment and existing research based theories on writing the authors demonstrate how a test based approach to accountability and current practices have undermined effective teaching and learning of writing This book bridges the gap between real world writing that takes place in schools college and careers and the writing that students are asked to do in standardized writing assessments to offer a new ecological approach to writing assessment Murphy and O'Neill's new way forward turns accountability inside out to help teachers understand the role of formative assessments and assessment as inquiry It also brings the outside in by bridging the gap between authentic writing and writing assessment Through these two strands readers learn how assessment systems can be restructured to become better aligned with contemporary understandings of writing and with best practices in teaching With examples of assessments from elementary school through college chapters include guidance on designing assessments to address multiple kinds of writing integrate reading with writing and incorporate digital technology and multimodality Emphasizing the central role that teachers play in systemic reform the authors offer sample assessments developed with intensive teacher involvement that support learning and provide information for the evaluation of programs and schools This book is an essential resource for graduate students instructors scholars and policymakers in writing assessment composition and English education
