Who's Who in the Arab World 2007-2008 Publitec Publications, 2011-12-22 Who's Who in the Arab World 2007-2008 compiles information on the most notable individuals in the Arab world. Additionally, the title provides insight into the historical background and the present of this influential and often volatile region. Part I sets out precise biographical details on some 6,000 eminent individuals who influence every sphere of public life in politics, culture, and society. Part II surveys the 19 Arab Countries, providing detailed information on the geography, history, constitution, economy, and culture of the individual countries. Part III provides information on the historical background of the Arab world. Indexes by country and profession supplement the biographical section. A select bibliography of secondary literature on the Middle East is also included.

Management Stephen P. Robbins, Rolf Bergman, Ian Stagg, Mary Coulter, 2014-09-01 The 7th edition of Management is once again a resource at the leading edge of thinking and research. By blending theory with stimulating, pertinent case studies and innovative practices, Robbins encourages students to get excited about the possibilities of a career in management. Developing the managerial skills essential for success in business by understanding and applying management theories is made easy with fresh new case studies and a completely revised suite of teaching and learning resources available with this text.

Global Talent Management Akram Al Ariss, 2014-04-28 This book bridges the research and practice of global talent management. It opens important theoretical and practical avenues to understand the concept internationally while focusing on developing and emerging countries. Chapters derive from various geographic regions and embrace cross-national comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives. An open and inclusive approach is used in assessing the challenges of global talent management strategies to overcome these challenges and in charting opportunities for future talent management. These three dimensions are crucial to academic researchers and business practitioners for envisioning a positive future role of talent management in businesses and societies.

Managing Organizations in the United Arab Emirates V. Bodolica, M. Spraggon, 2014-07-24 Managing Organizations in the United Arab Emirates seeks to familiarize readers with the nature of doing business and managing organizations in the Middle East by bringing together case studies on United Arab Emirates (UAE) organizations, one of the most dynamic and rapidly growing economies in the world.

Cultural Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism, it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world. The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa. The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions. Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions.

Key Features

Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History

Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church Joseph Nehemiah,2020-12-31 The church is a contextualized reality and if it is to flourish its leaders must be raised up to serve their own communities Yet our very techniques for teaching and learning are culturally defined If the church is to be effective in developing the leaders it needs our approach to training must be informed by its local context In this immensely practical text Joseph Nehemiah combines sound pedagogical research with rich cultural insight to provide a framework for training leaders in an Arab context Examining principles of adult education in light of Arab cultural dynamics Nehemiah offers a paradigm for experiential learning that is biblically rooted and contextually appropriate Informed by the experience of professors in the Arab Gulf along with extensive interviews from local church leaders Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church seeks to place the development teaching and training of leaders into the hands of the local church
