Manuscript Cultures Mapping The Field Studies In Manuscript Cultures:

Manuscript Cultures: Mapping the Field Jörg Quenzer, Dmitry Bondarev, Jan-Ulrich Sobisch, 2014-12-12 Script and writing were among the most important inventions in human history and until the invention of printing the handwritten book was the primary medium of literary and cultural transmission Although the study of manuscripts is already quite advanced for many regions of the world no unified discipline of manuscript studies has yet evolved which is capable of treating handwritten books from East Asia India and the Islamic world equally alongside the European manuscript tradition This book which aims to begin the interdisciplinary dialogue needed to arrive at a truly systematic and comparative approach to manuscript cultures worldwide brings together papers by leading researchers concerned with material philological and cultural aspects of different manuscript traditions

Exploring Multilingualism and Multiscriptism in Written Artefacts Szilvia Sövegjártó, Márton Vér, 2024-05-06 This book explores multilingualism and multiscriptism in a great variety of writing cultures offering an in depth analysis of how diverse languages and scripts seamlessly intertwine within written artefacts Insights into scribal practices are particularly illuminating in that respect especially when exploring artefacts originating from multicultural communities and regions where distinct writing traditions intersect The influence of multilingualism and multiscriptism on these writing cultures becomes evident with essays spanning various domains from the mundane aspects of everyday life to the realms of scholarship and political propaganda Scholars often relegate these phenomena despite being frequently encountered to the status of exceptions compared to the more prevalent monolingualism and monoscriptism However in daring to challenge this viewpoint this book emphasises the profound significance and relevance of multilingualism and multiscriptism in shaping the development of languages cultures and societies across Asia Africa and Europe It caters to a diverse readership keen on delving into the intricacies of these phenomena within this rich tapestry of writing cultures

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Religion Hephzibah Israel, 2022-12-19 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Religion is the first to bring together an extensive interdisciplinary engagement with the multiple ways in which the concepts and practices of translation and religion intersect The book engages a number of scholarly disciplines in conversation with each other including the study of translation and interpreting religion philosophy anthropology history art history and area studies A range of leading and emerging international specialists critically engage with changing understandings of the key categories translation and religion as discursive constructs thus contributing to the development of a new field of academic study translation and religion The 28 contributions divided into six parts analyze how translation constructs ideas texts or objects as sacred or for religious purposes often in competition with what is categorized as non religious The part played by faith communities is treated as integral to analyses of the role of translation and religion It investigates how or why translation functions in re constructing and transforming religion s and for whom and examines a range of sacred texts in translation from the written to the spoken manuscript to print paper to digital architectural form to objects of sacred art intersemiotic scriptural texts and where commentary exegesis and translation interweave This Handbook is an indispensable scholarly resource for researchers in translation studies and the study of religions

One-Volume Libraries: Composite and Multiple-Text Manuscripts Michael Friedrich, Cosima Schwarke, 2016-11-07 Composite and multiple text manuscripts are traditionally studied for their individual texts but recent trends in codicology have paved the way for a more comprehensive approach Manuscripts are unique artefacts which reveal how they were produced and used as physical objects While multiple text manuscripts codicologically are to be considered as production units i.e. they were originally planned and realized in order to carry more than one text composites consist of formerly independent codicological units and were put together at a later stage with intentions that might be completely different from those of its original parts Both sub types of manuscripts are still sometimes called miscellanies a term relating to the texts only The codicological difference is important for reconstructing why and how these manuscripts which in many cases resemble or contain a small library were produced and used Contributions on the manuscript cultures of China India Africa the Islamic world and European traditions lead not only to the conclusion that one volume libraries have been produced in many manuscript cultures but allow also for the identification of certain types of uses

Conservation of Books Abigail Bainbridge, 2023-03-27 Conservation of Books is the highly anticipated reference work on global book structures and their conservation offering the first modern comprehensive overview on this subject The volume takes an international approach to its subject Written by over 70 specialists in conservation and conservation science based in 19 countries its 26 chapters cover traditional book structures from around the world the materials from which they are made and how they degrade and how to preserve and conserve them It also examines the theoretical underpinnings of conservation what and how to treat and the ethical cultural and economic implications of treatment Technical drawings and photographs illustrate the structures and treatments examined throughout the book Ultimately readers gain an in depth understanding of the materiality of books in numerous global contexts and reflect on the practical considerations involved in their analysis and treatment Conservation of Books is a quintessential reference work for book conservators and anyone working with books such as collection managers librarians curators dealers collectors historians and related professionals It is also an indispensable text for students to complement hands on training in this field

Exploring Written Artefacts Jörg B. Quenzer, 2021-10-25 This collection presented to Michael Friedrich in honour of his academic career at the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures traces key concepts that scholars associated with the Centre have developed and refined for the systematic study of manuscript cultures At the same time the contributions showcase the possibilities of expanding the traditional subject of manuscripts to the larger perspective of written artefacts

Personal Manuscripts: Copying, Drafting, Taking Notes David Durand-Guédy, Jürgen Paul, 2023-04-27 Some manuscripts have been produced for the personal use of their scribe only whereas a number of them are valued as autographs most have been ephemeral and were discarded Personal manuscripts were not written for a patron commissioner or client They are personal copies anthologies florilegia personal notes excerpts drafts and notebooks as well as family books accountancy notebooks and many others these forms often being mixed with one another This volume introduces a number of such manuscripts in a comparative perspective from Japan to Europe through the Middle East with a focus on the Near and Middle East The main concern is the possibility of identifying typical features of such manuscripts in terms of materials visual organization and content In attempting this both the conditions of production and traces of the manuscripts use are taken into consideration with particular attention to their material aspects

Writing Timbuktu Shamil Jeppie, 2026-01-20 The long overlooked centuries long culture of the book in West Africa Printed books did not reach West Africa until the early twentieth century And yet between the fifteenth and twentieth centuries literate and curious readers throughout the region found books to read books that were written and copied by hand In Writing Timbuktu Shamil Jeppie offers a history of the book as a handwritten handmade object in West Africa Centering his account in the historic city of Timbuktu Jeppie explores the culture of the manuscript book unbound pages often held together by carefully crafted leather covers He describes the most important and most prolific scholars and their works the subjects they covered and ways these books were circulated collected and preserved The authors of the manuscript books wrote to demonstrate their knowledge to their peers expound theological and legal opinions and engage in scholarly disputation After beginning his account in Timbuktu Jeppie traces the literary connections among places as distant as Marrakesh in the north and Sokoto in the south and smaller settlements in between He chronicles the work of Ahmad Baba in late sixteenth century Timbuktu and his students in early seventeenth century Marrakesh the emergence of writers in the eighteenth century in what today is Mauritania the writings of the scholar rulers of Sokoto northern Nigeria in the nineteenth century and the eventual discovery of the manuscript book world of West Africa by European travelers and French colonial officials Finally Jeppie finds that the handwritten text persisted even after the advent of the printed book and even among writers whose books were in print including the famous Malian novelist Amadou Hamp t B Comparative Oriental Manuscript Studies Newsletter, 2012 New Studies of the Old Tibetan Documents □□□□, Matthew Kapstein, Tsuguhito Takeuchi, 2011 Reflections on Philippine Culture and Society Jesus T. Peralta, William Henry Scott, 2001 A collection of essays reflecting the diverse and abiding interests of William Henry Scott outstanding Philippine cultural historian writings on the Vocabulario Tagalo of Miguel Ruiz the Sama lepa of Tawi Tawi feasting in the sixteenth century land tenure agrarian developments the Palawan epics postrevolutionary Cebu the Franciscan friar F Arriaga Mateo and on Tagalog vocabularios Includes biographical notes on Scott and a bibliography of his works Drawn and Written in Stone John Vincent Bellezza, 2020 Drawn and Written in Stone explores the religious history of the highest part of the Tibetan Plateau through its rock art and inscriptions It is focused on facsimiles of ritual and ceremonial monuments carved and painted on stone surfaces and rock inscriptions in the Tibetan language vital archaeological and historical materials for appraising the development of religion in Tibet ca 100 BCE to 1400 CE By probing the complexion of figures and letters in stone this work considers how early cult traditions contributed to the establishment of Tibetan Buddhism and a rival faith known as Yungdrung Bon Outside of the Indian cultural context relatively little has been written about the historical antecedents of these popular Tibetan religions for a want of sources This monograph helps remedy this large gap in Tibetan studies by drawing upon the author s surveys of rock art and rock inscriptions conducted in upmost Tibet between 1995 and 2013 Back cover
