Maid Of Honor A Novel Of Betrayal And Suspense:

Maid of Honor John King, 2014-10-31 John King's second novel Maid of Honor is a tale of questionable love, money, and betrayal. Ben Taylor was having the time of his life in college. He was young, popular, and handsome. When he receives a letter from a strange girl admonishing him for publically snubbing her after being introduced, he is puzzled. He doesn't recognize her name. Who is this woman, Paige Montgomery? He seeks her out and so begins an intense relationship founded on callow, selfish desire, a relationship that will lead to marriage, wealth, stature, and ultimately heartbreak, betrayal, and murder. Maid of Honor is narrated by the young Ben. In his eyes, he is not a calculating opportunist who marries the frumpy but adoring Paige for her money. He is as much a victim as she. And who is Evelyn, Paige's beautiful cousin, maid of honor, and archrival? Is she paying for her wild lifestyle as the trapped wife of a violent, abusive criminal? Is she worthy of rescue? Maid of Honor is a suspense thriller and love story that climbs to a great height only to come crashing down in a frantic, shattering end. John King is also the author of Blackjack, 21 Stories, Hat Trick, 3 Novellas, and The Big Mouth, A Novel.

The Maids of Paradise Robert William Chambers, 2021-08-31 In The Maids of Paradise, Robert William Chambers unveils a rich tapestry of enchanting narratives that intertwine fantasy and reality, exploring themes of love, beauty, and the ephemeral nature of existence. The collection is characterized by Chambers' lyrical prose, blending elements of symbolism and impressionism, steeped in the aesthetic movement of the late 19th century. Each tale dances between the ethereal and the tangible, often set against vivid landscapes that evoke an almost dream-like quality, inviting readers to reflect on the transient beauty of life and the complexities of human desire. Robert William Chambers, an American writer and artist, gained prominence in artistic circles for his unique style that often drew on themes of decadence and mysticism. His exposure to the art world and the influence of Parisian literary circles undoubtedly shaped his vision, leading him to explore the interplay of reality and imagination in The Maids of Paradise. Chambers' own experiences with love and longing permeate his work, positioning him as a crucial figure in the transition from Victorian to modern literature. I highly recommend The Maids of Paradise to readers who appreciate exquisite prose and those yearning for a blend of enchanting storytelling with profound philosophical reflections. Chambers' masterful exploration of human emotion within a beautifully crafted framework makes this collection an essential addition to the canon of late 19th-century literature. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A succinct Introduction situates the work's timeless appeal and themes. The Synopsis outlines the central plot, highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists. A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era's events and influences that shaped the writing. A thorough Analysis dissects symbols, motifs, and character arcs to unearth underlying meanings. Reflection questions prompt you to engage personally with the work's messages, connecting them to modern life. Hand-picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance. Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references, historical allusions, and archaic phrases for an effortless, more informed read.
