MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I will do everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

Imagination and Environmental Political Thought Joshua J. Bowman, 2018-03-16 Imagination and Environmental Political Thought The Aftermath of Thoreau seeks to correct oversimplified readings of Henry David Thoreau's political thought by elucidating a key tension within his imagination With the celebration of Thoreau's two hundredth birthday now past this study outlines and builds on his own understanding of imagination and considers its implications for environmental politics Despite the use of the word aftermath Thoreau's legacy for environmental political thought is primarily constructive and foundational for modern environmentalism Thoreau's virtues and vices have been inherited by his environmentally conscious readers The author of Walden's preference for an abstract ahistorical higher law his radical concept of autonomy and his frustration with government and community foster an impractical political thought characteristic of an idyllic imagination Nevertheless Thoreau demonstrates a more prudential and moral imagination by emphasizing the inescapable relationship between the moral order of individuals and the order of political communities and by pioneering the central questions of humanity's relationship to non human nature Can this tension of imaginations be resolved What are the consequences of this tension Thoreau's overall vision ultimately creates significant problems with which environmentalists still struggle While Thoreau's emphasis on freedom and the immaterial aspects of human and non human nature are of considerable value his abstract political morality misanthropy and escapism must be resisted both for the sake of environmental well being and human dignity In addition this book is an exercise in re thinking how the humanities may provide scholars critical insights to better diagnose and respond to the environmental challenges of our time The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L. Williams, 2007-09-21 In this expertly crafted richly detailed guide Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural political and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II In addition to works originally composed in English Williams covers novels written in Spanish Portuguese French Dutch and Haitian Creole and traces the profound influence of modernization revolution and democratization on the writing of this era Beginning in 1945 Williams introduces major trends by region including the Caribbean and U S Latino novel the Mexican and Central American novel the Andean novel the Southern Cone novel and the novel of Brazil He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s led by Jorge Luis Borges's reaffirmation of the right of invention and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil the Generation of the Crack in Mexico and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors coverage of major topics and brief introductions to individual novels It also addresses such areas as women's writing Afro Latin American writing and magic realism The guide's final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel national literary traditions and the work of individual authors From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban
