Harriet's disappearance in The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo juxtaposes two eras of criminal investigation In the first Henrik Vanger's enormous library of files photographs interview statements and police reports In the second Lisbeth Salander's slim laptop the internet and Milton Securities high tech devices Vanger hires Blomkvist to look at his dusty old files and photographs with fresh eyes and a new perspective which is what Blomkvist intends to do But he and Salander are only able to solve the crime using new technologies not available in the past and ones that would never have occurred to Henrik Vanger or his fellow octogenarian the police investigator Working with the previous era's evidence is frustrating for Blomkvist The photos show an incomplete story of the day so he dives into the newspaper's photographic archives to examine every potentially helpful picture from the day Harriet disappeared His best clue the couple behind Harriet has to be tracked down over hundreds of kilometers and days of investigation In the end the photo he finds is grainy and blurred useless except for the color of the man's sweater If Harriet had disappeared in present day times all the stores would have had security cameras The accident on the bridge would have been filmed by dozens of cellphone cameras The visual evidence would have been overwhelming
