Category	4- Advanced	3- Proficient	2- Basic	1- Below Basic
Focus	My writing is clear and completely answers all parts of the prompt. I did not forget or lose the main idea when I added details.	Sometimes my writing moved away from the main point of focus of the prompt. Sometimes my details do not relate to the prompt and made my ideas confusing.	My writing is not clear and I drifted away from the prompt.	I did not stay focused on the topic or prompt. My writing is very difficult to understand when I re-read my work or when someone else reads my work.
Content	I used important details and information. I developed my ideas and made sure all of my sentences connected to the prompt.	I used some details to support my topic, but I needed to add more information and supporting details.	I needed to use more details to make my writing complete.	I did not use details or ideas to support my topic or response.
Organization	I wrote a strong introduction, body, and conclusion. I used appropriate transitions to connect my ideas.	I needed to put my story in order. I needed to strengthen all portions of my response. I needed to use more transition words to make my ideas flow.	I did not organize my response. I was missing paragraphs. My writing seems more like an outline than complete paragraphs. I did not use transition words.	I had no introduction, body, or conclusion. I have many mixed-up ideas. I did not use transition words.
Style	I used descriptive words that help readers "see" my ideas. My sentences varied in length, word usage, and structure. My tone and voice are consistent.	Most words address the prompt. I should choose a wider variety of words. I did not use different types of sentences. Tone and voice are not always consistent.	I used few descriptive words. I had little sentence variety. The tone and voice are not consistent.	I used no descriptive words. My sentences all begin with the same word or are not complete. There is no consistent tone or voice.
Conventions	I had few, if any, errors in spelling, grammar, and punctuation. My writing is neat and legible.	I made a few errors in spelling, grammar, and punctuation, but my meaning is still clear and understandable.	I had many mistakes in spelling, grammar, and punctuation. Sometimes my writing is hard to read.	My writing had so many mistakes that it is difficult to read or understand.

How to Create and Use Rubrics for Formative Assessment and Grading Susan M. Brookhart, 2013-01-11 What is a rubric A rubric is a coherent set of criteria for student work that describes levels of performance quality Sounds simple enough right Unfortunately rubrics are commonly misunderstood and misused The good news is that when rubrics are created and used correctly they are strong tools that support and enhance classroom instruction and student learning In this comprehensive guide author Susan M Brookhart identifies two essential components of effective rubrics 1 criteria that relate to the learning not the tasks that students are being asked to demonstrate and 2 clear descriptions of performance across a continuum of quality She outlines the difference between various kinds of rubrics for example general versus task specific and analytic versus holistic explains when using each type of rubric is appropriate and highlights examples from all grade levels and assorted content areas In addition Brookhart addresses Common misconceptions about rubrics Important differences between rubrics and other assessment tools such as checklists and rating scales and when such alternatives can be useful and How to use rubrics for formative assessment and grading including standards based grading and report card grades Intended for educators who are already familiar with rubrics as well as those who are not this book is a complete resource for writing effective rubrics and for choosing wisely from among the many rubrics that are available on the Internet and from other sources And it makes the case that rubrics when used appropriately can improve outcomes by helping teachers teach and helping students learn Bilingualism for All? Nelson Flores, Amelia Tseng, Nicholas Subtirelu, 2020-12-16 It is common for scholarly and mainstream discourses on dual language education in the US to frame these programs as inherently socially transformative and to see their proliferation in recent years as a natural means of developing more anti racist spaces in public schools In contrast this book adopts a raciolinguistic perspective that points to the contradictory role that these programs play in both reproducing and challenging racial hierarchies The book includes 11 chapters that adopt a range of methodological techniques qualitative quantitative and textual disciplinary perspectives linguistics sociology and anthropology and language foci Spanish Hebrew and Korean to examine the ways that dual language education programs in the US often reinforce the racial inequities that they purport to challenge Teaching Writing in Middle and Secondary Schools Jim Blasingame, John H. Bushman, 2005 Teaching Writing in Middle and Secondary Schools provides research based and standards based strategies as well as classroom tested activities all in one book Covering the core fundamentals of exemplary practices in the teaching of writing this book demonstrates writing processes and the use of rubrics with authentic samples taken directly from students writing portfolios Readers are also given valuable information on teaching grammar and spelling curriculum planning service learning and community and parental involvement all through the lens of teaching writing Collaborating for Real Literacy Sharon M. Pitcher, Bonnie Mackey, 2013-03-21 Advances in literacy require collaboration between all of a school s stakeholders This book harnesses the latest research and takes into consideration CCSS to show how to make that collaboration a reality Authentic literacy practice is crucial to preparing all students to be successful both in the workplace and college in the 21st century Insisting that this literacy achievement will only happen when librarians teachers literacy coaches and administrators work together in their schools Collaborating for Real Literacy addresses the role of each instructional leader individually and examines the importance of the group collectively in bolstering the literacy of all students Practical ways to support the teaching of the Common Core State Standards CCSS are infused throughout every chapter In this second edition of the book core chapters on scaffolding literacy centers family literacy English language learners comprehension assessment writing and discussion have been updated based on current research and CCSS Each of these chapters now offers suggestions for literacy coaches Also new are recommendations for grades K 5 and 6 12 demonstrating specific ways to apply instructional ideas to different age levels and providing materials that can be used for the instruction Additionally three new chapters have been added with real literacy instructional ideas for content area reading and Response to Intervention support for struggling readers
