Where Sport Marketing Theory Meets Practice Brenda G. Pitts, 2005 As SMA President and host of SMA II the second annual SMA Conference it gives me great pride to share this book with members of the Association as well as an extended readership base The collection of outstanding papers contained within this manuscript is drawn from over one hundred and fifty academic presentations delivered during the three day conference held in Memphis Tennessee November 18 20 2004 attracting more than three hundred sport marketing scholars professionals and students From Richard Irwin s preface A Word From the President

Making the Team Jay Johnson, Margery Jean Holman, 2004 Media attention has recently raised public awareness of hazing rituals generating curiosity interest and debate about hazing as an initiation practice Making the Team is a ground breaking collection of contemporary perspectives on this topic This book provides a theoretical analysis of hazing from a sociological perspective both in the United States and in Canada It is designed to provide an understanding of hazing for use in sociology and sport management classes and is also highly suitable for courses that examine gender roles and socialisation The collection chronicles the hazing practices that exist in sport and offers an historical overview of hazing and its emergence in today s sport culture It also provides a theoretical and legal guide for understanding and managing hazing in sport The discussion focuses on the role of tradition power and violence in hazing and on how the rituals serve as a confirmation of masculinity and dominance These issues engage the reader in critical thought about a contentious aspect of sport that until recently has gone unchallenged

Directory of Undergraduate Programs in Sport Management P. Greg Comfort, 2005 In 2001 the Directory of Academic Programs in Sport Management was Fitness Information Technology s first survey of sport management programs around the world Now FIT has teamed with the North American Society for Sport Management NASSM to put out for the first time a single directory that focuses solely on undergraduate programs Led by new editor Greg Comfort the resources of FIT and the NASSM combine to produce The Directory of Undergraduate Programs in Sport Management allowing each program to be fully researched and representing a greater number of programs than the original book The Directory of Undergraduate Programs in Sport Management contains extensive information on more than 150 sport management undergraduate programs throughout both the United States and the world The directory will help prospective undergraduate students find the appropriate school and field of study sport management faculty advise prospective students in the field and sport industry professionals recruit students for internships and employment The Directory identifies many important features of each graduate program Inside you will find valuable information How to Contact Each Program Faculty and Their Areas of Interest Admissions Requirements Financial Aid and Internship Opportunities Educational Resources in Sport Management An ideal resource for students faculty and practitioners involved in the field of sport management

Sport and Criminal Behavior Jason W. Lee, Jeffrey C. Lee, 2009

Sport is filled with many paradoxes. Although fitness strength and other seemingly healthful benefits are inherently part of sport, there is also the constant presence of unhealthy and inappropriate associations. This dichotomy is quite prevalent in many forms in contemporary sport. Sport and Criminal Behavior examines some of the most relevant and thought-provoking occurrences of criminal and quasi-criminal behavior in sport. By identifying pertinent issues including motives and causes associated with such actions, this work presents a comprehensive view of these issues while providing ways such matters can be effectively dealt with in contemporary society. Among the topics addressed in this work are drug issues, violence, gambling, ticket scalping, hazing, fraud in nonprofit sport, homeland security issues, and disaster preparedness in sport and intellectual property, trademark law, copyright misappropriation, and criminal implications. The book is designed as an introductory textbook for college-level sport management students and as such it succeeds. But other readers will find it an interesting beginning treatment of a timely topic. Summing Up Recommended CHOICE Magazine

Principles and Practice of Sport Management Lisa Pike Masteralexis, Carol A. Barr, Mary Hums, 2008-01-17 Principles and Practice of Sport Management Third Edition provides students with solid fundamental information on what they need to do to be successful in the sport industry. Updated and expanded, this best-selling text offers a unique blend of information on the foundations and principles on which sport management operates, as well as how to apply those foundations and principles to the sport industry. The authors, all well-renowned professors in sport management or sport administration, have produced a text that is thorough, practical, and lively, and which lays the groundwork for students as they study and prepare for successful careers in sport management. Contemporary Athletics Compendium James Harry Humphrey, 2009 This book is concerned with all levels of athletics: interscholastic, intercollegiate, club, and professional. Articles on all aspects of contemporary athletics are invited. Topics include, but are not limited to, event scheduling, stress, sports medicine, graduation rates, academic eligibility, gender issues, commercialization, funding, or the lack of it, sports psychology, sports sociology, parental aggression, coaching, drug use in athletics, teamwork, philosophy, athletic competition, participation in relation to life, spectator behavior, officiating, religion in sports, sports gambling, history of athletics, athlete administration, ethics, sports management, nutrition, and legal issues.
