Young love with a twist

Twenty-five twenty-somethings embrace the gap

On Sunday, 4 May, 100 like-minded young Jewish people gathered in the Maccabi Centre in Perth. The reason? Twenty-five lucky individuals received a knock on the door by their date for the evening — a twenty-something bachelor or bachelorette. Dressed up in their finest and armed with a camera and roses.

Together with their classmates, young lovers, they walked the red carpet to the Great Gatsby-themed ball, organised by the young adults themselves.

Both young and old enjoyed an evening of fine wine and great food courtesy of the MDP, and danced under the disco ball to old favourites mixed up with some modern day beats.

What inspired this special evening? Well, to lighten the load of the older members of our community, going on a date (with their husband/wife) and then finding all those something awkward about it and changing it.

Big thanks to the wonderful Sarah Mizrahi, Shani Perkins and Jarrod Cohen for organising such an elegant and inspiring evening! It's wonderful to genuinely proud of you and proud to be made up of people like you!
