Digital Childhoods Susan J. Danby, Marilyn Fleer, Christina Davidson, Maria Hatzigianni, 2018-04-03 This book highlights the multiple ways that digital technologies are being used in everyday contexts at home and school in communities and across diverse activities from play to web searching to talking to family members who are far away The book helps readers understand the diverse practices employed as children make connections with digital technologies in their everyday experiences In addition the book employs a framework that helps readers easily access major themes at a glance and also showcases the diversity of ideas and theorisations that underpin the respective chapters In this way each chapter stands alone in making a specific contribution and at the same time makes explicit its connections to the broader themes of digital technologies in children's everyday lives The concept of digital childhood presented here goes beyond a sociological reading of the everyday lives of children and their families and reflects the various contexts in which children engage such as preschools and childcare centres

Preschool Appropriate Practices Janice J. Beaty, 1996 Research proves that the preschool child learns best through playful exploration of the environment This book shows how the learning environment can facilitate teaching by providing a curriculum that addresses children's interests and needs as well as the teacher's task of choosing appropriate activities for children's development It describes ten learning centers that allow children to choose and direct their own play and how teachers can arrange the physical environment of a preschool classroom so they can observe and support children in these activities This new edition continues its use of children's picture books in every chapter to introduce projects and to integrate new activities based on the books themselves There are 60 children's computer programs and applicable software also discussed as well as other helpful tools designed to assist the preschool teaching staff
