China's Quest for Sporting Mega-Events Marcus P. Chu, 2020-07-14 This book vividly elucidates the inseparable nature between politics and sport in China The holding of sporting mega events is viewed by the Chinese authorities as a prominent way to push forward the Reform and Opening up arouse the patriotism among the public and display national resurgence in the world Chinese cities thus have keenly quested for the Olympics the Asian Games and the World University Games since the 1980s Theoretically the President the Premier and the central government should provide all out support so boosting the Chinese cities odds of success The reality yet shows that their attitude towards the bids vary from case to case Through reviewing the 20 bidding cases this book aims to demystify the reasons behind The findings provide an in depth account of 1 how domestic and international political factors determine the state leaders blessing and silence as well as the central government s backing indifference and opposition and 2 how the bids for the sporting mega events are used to serve the broader political goals of the Chinese authorities at home and abroad Additionally they shed light on the political strategies to boost the Chinese cities chance of success and the political reasons for their win loss and discontinuation in the bidding contests The book will be a valuable resource for researches interested in the domestic politics and international relations of China

China, Taiwan, and International Sporting Events Marcus P. Chu, 2022-07-07 Chu explores the politics behind Taiwanese cities pursuit of international sporting events and the Chinese authorities strategic measures in handling the relations with Taiwan since the 1990s It is assumed that the Chinese authorities constantly oppose Taiwanese cities application for and boycott their subsequent holding of international sporting events Doing so would obstruct Taiwan s capacity to raise its visibility and influence in world society and defend the One China principle In fact the role of China in Taiwan s pursuit of international sporting events is not invariably as a fatal obstructer but sometimes a neutral bystander or even an enthusiastic supporter Chu examines the reasons behind this phenomenon Reviewing the 18 Taiwanese bidding attempts and four hosting projects he argues that China s inconsistent response is determined by the ups and downs of Cross Strait political ties As a result this book provides insight into the nexus between sports and politics in the context of China Taiwan rivalry A must read for scholars students and other watchers of Cross Strait relations
