The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1862 United States Political Science Documents ,1991 Europe, Phenomenology, and Politics in Husserl and Patocka Lorenzo Girardi,2023-09-27 Europe is often discussed in the context of crisis usually economic or political Less prominent these days is Europe s spiritual crisis an important topic throughout the previous century Various catastrophes put in doubt the rationalist principles on which Europe had based itself The current relativist intellectual and political climate can still be seen as an expression of this Rather than following attempts to counter this via the restoration of a supposedly European essence often in terms of Christianity or rationalism this book attempts to think the crisis through to its end and to articulate the truth which manifests itself in it The themes of this book Europe phenomenology and politics share a concern with the crisis as the dissolution of the world that is the dissolution of a shared horizon of human existence Among phenomenologists Husserl and Patocka foremost have linked this problematic to reflections on the idea of Europe itself They represent two distinct perspectives corresponding to different historical situations Nonetheless what is presented here is not primarily the continuity between their thought and their historical circumstances but rather the underexamined continuity between their phenomenology and their thought on Europe and politics Applying phenomenology to politics Husserl s and Patocka s thought are used to assess the justification for and limits of liberal and agonistic political philosophy respectively By analysing the concrete ways in which our world is structured experientially the limits of the ideal of rational reconciliation are shown An alternative conception of politics is developed on the basis of the breakdown of Europe s rationalist ideal that is on the basis of the truth which manifests itself in Europe s crisis without lapsing into a relativism where anything goes This leads to an agonistic conception of liberal democracy based on Patocka s phenomenological concept of problematicity
