extensive research in the country Their interest as scholars and or civil society activists is guided by a loyalty characterised not by rhetoric but by empathy with the people They advocate notions of human rights social equality and related values and norms instead of being driven by an ideologically determined party political affiliation Their investigative and analytical endeavours depict a society in transition a society that is far from being liberated Not surprisingly this compilation explores the limits to liberation more than its advances      Country Profile ,1990      African Defence Journal ,1990
