Guilmoto, Gavin W. Jones, 2015-12-12 This book examines the profound demographic transformation affecting China India and Indonesia where 40% of the world s people live It offers a systematic comparative approach that will help readers to better understand the changing social and regional recomposition of the population in these regions The chapters present a detailed investigation and mapping of regional trends in mortality fertility migration and urbanization education and aging Throughout the analysis carefully considers how these trends affect economic and social development Coverage also raises global theoretical questions about the singular ways in which each of these three countries have achieved their demographic transition As the authors reveal demographic trends seem to be somewhat linear and anticipatable providing Asia s three demographic giants and their governments a formidable advantage in planning for the future But the evolution of human mobility in China India and Indonesia closely intertwined as it is with changing economic conditions appears less predictable and ranks high among the major challenges to demographic knowledge in the coming decades Offering an insightful look into the components implications and regional variations of a changing population this book will appeal to social scientists demographers anthropologists sociologists epidemiologists and specialists in Asian studies Universities in the National Innovation Systems V. V. Krishna, 2017-07-31 This volume looks at the role of universities in the National Innovation Systems in economies of the Asia Pacific It examines the tremendous growth of human and knowledge capital made possible by teaching and research excellence in major universities along with how universities are being re positioned as frontiers of innovation in the National Systems of Innovation The chapters assess the impact of globalisation and innovation together with the emergence of new knowledge sites extended to the Asia Pacific region With contributions by experts and academics and key case studies this book will be useful to scholars and researchers in higher education development studies public policy economics business and resource management Asian studies as well as policymakers The Impact of Climate Change on Our Life Abdelnaser Omran, Odile Schwarz-Herion, 2018-02-23 This book introduces the highly topical issue from many different angles sensitizing readers to the various challenges to human life posed by climate change identifying possible intentional and inadvertent anthropogenic factors and consequences and seeking socially and environmentally viable solutions The book begins by examining the impact of the climate change discussion on science politics economy and culture from its historical origin in the first Club of Rome Report and its inclusion in the UN s SDGs to the Paris Agreement and beyond Comprising 12 chapters it analyses the factors which caused the catastrophic 2014 Kelantan flood in Malaysia focusing on the Kuala Krai district and discusses mud architecture in Wadi Hadramout Yemen and mitigating the expected effects of climate change on this unique architecture and cultural heritage It also examines the economic costs of climate change on health and the increased burden on individual expenditures and national health systems The role of climate change in the water energy nexus and efforts to increase efficiency in energy and water end use to increase Queensland s agricultural sector s resilience in Australia is addressed as is water security and climate change issues in developing countries and the potential of partnership procurement strategies for managing sustainable urban water supply in Nigerian cities It also includes a chapter offering a new approach to waste management exploring to what extent waste can complicate our daily actions and influence environmental decay and recommending that renewable materials be sorted and separated from other types of materials to avoid cross contamination to increase the value of the materials and to ease the process of manufacturing Subsequent chapters identify factors sustaining the municipal solid waste management and practices in Ajdabiya city in Libya and look at accounting disclosure remedies by exploring areas in which sustainability reporting could expand beyond corporate environmental reporting to additional disclosures curbing recklessness in pursuing merely economic goals The book shows from the perspective of agriculture how human activities can increase the negative impacts of climate change on lifestyle in Malaysia suggesting alternative lifestyles and encouraging international cooperative efforts The last chapters evaluate the impacts of various environmental factors on the local tourism sector in Pakistan and discuss strategies to tackle climate change focusing on the opportunities and risks of climate engineering Since these risks encompass inadvertent negative effects and targeted abuse for covert weather warfare and terrorism that violate the UN s ENMOD convention the author recommends viable alternatives to deal with climate change Making Commons

Dynamic Prateep Kumar Nayak, 2021-03-01 With an emphasis on the challenges of sustaining the commons across local to global scales Making Commons Dynamic examines the empirical basis of theorising the concepts of commonisation and decommonisation as a way to understand commons as a process and offers analytical directions for policy and practice that can potentially help maintain commons as commons in the future Focusing on commonisation decommonisation as an analytical framework useful to examine and respond to changes in the commons the chapter contributions explore how natural resources are commonised and decommonised through the influence of multi level internal and external drivers and their implications for commons governance across disparate geographical and temporal contexts It draws from a large number of geographically diverse empirical cases 20 countries in North South and Central America and South and South East Asia They involve a wide range of commons related to fisheries forests grazing wetlands coastal marine rivers and dams aquaculture wildlife tourism groundwater surface freshwater mountains small islands social movements and climate The book is a transdisciplinary endeavour with contributions by scholars from geography history sociology anthropology political studies planning human ecology cultural and applied ecology environmental and development studies environmental science and technology public policy Indigenous tribal studies Latin American and Asian studies and environmental change and governance and authors representing the commons community NGOs and policy Contributors include academics community members NGOs practitioners and policymakers Therefore commonisation decommonisation lessons drawn from these chapters are well suited for contributing to the practice policy and theory of the commons both locally and globally

In Sickness and in Wealth Carol Chan, 2018-08-10 Villagers in Indonesia hear a steady stream of stories about the injuries abuses and even deaths suffered by those who migrate in search of work So why do hundreds of thousands of Indonesian workers continue to migrate every year Carol Chan explores this question from the perspective of the origin community and provides a fascinating look at how gender faith and shame shape these decisions to migrate Villagers evaluate men s and women s migrations differently leading to different ideas about which kinds of human or financial flows should be encouraged and which should be discouraged or even criminalized Despite routine and well documented instances of exploitation of Indonesian migrant workers some villagers still emphasize that a migrant s success or failure ultimately depends on that individual s morality fate and destiny Indonesian villagers construct strategies for avoiding migration related risks that are closely linked to faith and belief in supernatural agency These strategies shape the flow of migration from the country and help to ensure the continued confidence Indonesian people have in migration as an act of promise and hope
