Cross Currents Gi-Wook Shin,Daniel C. Snider,2007 Northeast Asia stands at a turning point in its history The key economies of China Japan and South Korea are growing increasingly interdependent and the movement toward regionalism is gaining momentum Yet interdependency often set in a global context also spurs nationalism in all three countries and elsewhere in East Asia Northeast Asia today feels the presence of all three complex forces national regional and global connecting competing and colliding in myriad ways The authors of this book assess current interactions of national and regional forces in Northeast Asia in the context of U S presence in the region These seemingly contradictory forces must be considered together the sparks they generate have important policy implications for the United States and for the region as a whole Constructive reformulation of these interactions is one of Northeast Asia s most pressing contemporary challenges      田口二郎,2003      Working Paper Series ,1991-04
