Synchronizing

Success Maren Koepf, 2008 At Moreland Hills Elementary School something remarkable is taking place writes district literacy specialist Maren Koepf Across the past ten years teachers and administrators have worked together to produce a learning network supporting our students our staff and our parents Much like the once apprehensive peasants in the tale of Stone Soup folks have gradually emerged from their isolated huts of offices and classrooms to generate mutual resources solutions and innovations Through joint endeavors we created a Comprehensive Literacy System In Synchronizing Success Maren takes you on a tour of one school s winning strategy for developing an efficient and effective network of literacy support from kindergarten through fifth grade Beginning with a practical framework for continuous improvement Maren presents three guiding principles that underlie the comprehensive system continuity across practice instructional language assessment etc ongoing professional development and collaborative leadership She illustrates how applying these guiding principles extends a school s capacity for unity and innovation The book shows how school leaders can create a comprehensive literacy system throughout schools and across districts by aligning change components with a vision for literacy education and offers tried and true processes for developing job embedded professional development common literacy assessments consistent instructional frameworks prioritized curricular focus timely and targeted intervention Enriched with tools tips and planning guides for incrementally managing positive change Synchronizing Success provides literacy specialists principals and staff developers the resources and action steps necessary for designing an integrated literacy system tailor fit to their school setting

The Art of Teaching Reading Lucy Calkins, 2001 Lucy Calkins has written a book with the goal of creating lifelong readers The Art of Teaching Reading offers educators a multifaceted reading program supported by word study guided reading book talks and other ongoing structures to produce impassioned readers Through years of research the author provides a myriad of ideas to help young readers discover their own joy of reading and love of books This text focuses on the big picture of reading instruction and explores the goals of reading programs It also provides information on comprehending and responding to text through synthesis critique writing and other effective strategies for understanding For teachers or future teachers or educators

Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003 The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning diversity and instruction based assessment and helps translate principles into practice The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching The text with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated meaningful and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts It then goes one step further describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language In keeping with the text s theme illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text Instructor, 2005 Cases on Emotionally Responsive Teaching and Mentoring Ellsworth, Ann M., 2020-03-27 Educators who work with pre service teachers understand the significant role they play in mentoring the next generation of teachers Those who have walked the talk and been classroom teachers themselves working with students daily over the course of a school year can share powerful stories on transformative teaching To fully prepare tomorrow's teachers educators need to mix theory about best practice with the reality of teaching in classrooms Cases on Emotionally Responsive Teaching and Mentoring provides a collection of case studies from former classroom teachers who now work with pre service teachers to provide an understanding of the expectations and outcomes of teaching through actual K 12 teaching experiences Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cultural identity teacher development and learner diversity this book is ideally designed for pre service teachers mentors educators administrators professors academicians and students seeking current research on the diverse nature of schools children and learning and applying concepts to best suit the profession The Art of Teaching Writing Lucy Calkins, 1994 Clearly during the time in which Calkins original ideas have spread like wildlife her focus has not been on articulating and defending those ideas but on developing and rethinking them Respecting and responding to the questions that have arisen as thousands of teachers establish writing workshops in their classrooms and drawing upon the latest knowledge in the field and her own intimate understanding of classroom life Calkins has re thought every line and every facet of her original text Teaching Content Reading and Writing Martha Rapp Ruddell, 1993 Launching the Writing Workshop Lucy Calkins, Leah Mermelstein, 2003 Part of a series of units which make up a year long curriculum about primary writing How to Align Literacy Instruction, Assessment, and Standards Nancy L. Akhavan, 2004 In this book Nancy Akhavan details the stories and strategies that enabled her school to move from under performing status to one in which students achieve and teachers have a whole new understanding of targeted instruction sensitive assessment and meaningful curriculum There is much to appreciate in what she says from her attention to thinking small and understanding the power of the details her emphasis on planning and goal setting to the seriousness with which she takes the standards and incorporates them into the life of the classroom Drawing on the work of the best in the business Lucy Calkins David and Yvonne Freeman and Tony Alvarado Akhavan made professional development the heartbeat of her school as she helped her faculty understand that their work begins and ends with continuous assessment of their students Now she helps readers of her book learn how child centered assessment leads to strategic instruction how to best support multilingual learners how to organize for yearlong learning how to think through precise workshop instruction in minilessons how to develop meaningful curriculum around units of study how to create a vibrant school community where standards and accountability stem from regular assessment and examination of instructional practices Akhavan provides immediately useful information for any elementary teacher principal or curriculum developer Read her book and understand how to use standards as a way to connect meaningful instruction to students not as a bar that students have to reach or a barrier to real teaching and learning

Constructing Meaning Joyce Bainbridge, Grace Malicky, 2000 This text introduces all aspects of language arts instruction while emphasizing the integration and interdependence of each element reading writing speaking and listening Topical coverage includes language development and emerging literacy the teaching of reading and writing the role of drama and children s literature in the classroom and methods of assessment      Resources in Education ,1995
