East Asian Literatures, 2006 This volume discusses the past present and future perspectives of literature in Japan China and South Korea and its interface with India Since this being a largely unexplored area an attempt has been made to present a true picture of the literature and cultural milieu of the East Asian countries to the readers through well researched thought provoking and enlightening papers contributed by eminent scholars from India Japan China and Korea It is a historical fact that India maintained strong cultural ties with East Asian countries directly or indirectly through religion and culture since ancient times This cultural bond has become all the more significant and meaningful in this age of information technology and globalization In this context literature has a great role to play To be precise it is only through literature that this existing bond of cultural affinity among India and East Asian countries could be nurtured and strengthened This book gives a vivid picture of the state of the past and present literary trends in Japan China and South Korea the influence of Indian literary trends and thought on their literatures and the general perception and assimilation of East Asian literatures in India This book would be a unique and comprehensive reference material for teachers researchers students writers and literary critics of Indian and East Asian literatures

African American Folktales Roger Abrahams, 2011-07-27 Full of life wisdom and humor these tales range from the earthy comedy of tricksters to accounts of how the world was created and got to be the way it is to moral fables that tell of encounters between masters and slaves They include stories set down in nineteenth century travelers reports and plantation journals tales gathered by collectors such as Joel Chandler Harris and Zora Neale Hurston and narratives tape recorded by Roger Abrahams himself during extensive expeditions throughout the American South and the Caribbean With black and white illustrations throughout Part of the Pantheon Fairy Tale and Folklore Library

African Folktales Roger Abrahams, 2011-08-03 The deep forest and broad savannah the campsites kraals and villages from this immense area south of the Sahara Desert the distinguished American folklorist Roger D Abrahams has selected ninety five tales that suggest both the diversity and the interconnectedness of the people who live there The storytellers weave imaginative myths of creation and tales of epic deeds chilling ghost stories and ribald tales of mischief and magic in the animal and human realms Abrahams renders these stories in a narrative voice that reverberates with the rhythms of tribal song and dance and the emotional language of universal concerns With black and white drawings throughout Part of the Pantheon Fairy Tale and Folklore Library The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L.
