A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands Rodney Moffett, 2021-04-19 This bibliography includes scientific articles on the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands published between 1808 and 2019. Although focussing on material appearing in accredited journals, there is such a wealth of information in the form of unpublished yet traceable reports, documents, presentations and dissertations; these are also included. The bibliography has two parts: a complete list arranged alphabetically and the same references arranged in 33 different disciplines. These range from Palaeobotany with 17 entries to Rock Art with 502 entries.

An Introduction to Land Tenure in Sub-Saharan Africa John W. Bruce, 2026-02-04 Written by a scholar/practitioner with over four decades of experience, this book is an accessible introduction to land tenure and its implications for African development. The book carries a clear warning: intensifying conflict over land across Africa is not the growing pains of a positive evolution in land tenure but a problem that can only get worse without the state's recognition of customary tenure systems when undertaking tenure reform. The author reviews Africa's experience of evolution in customary land tenure and the often difficult experience of the new nation in land tenure reform, including the failure to prevent further loss of land by rural populations and the unwitting contribution of some reform elements to that loss. The book has a broad reach across many countries in Africa and many different types of land, including farmland, pastures and rangelands and forests. It is complemented by insights from a variety of disciplines to provide an accessible but nuanced introduction to a topic not well understood even in some development circles. While it focuses on Africa, the book is highly relevant to many countries of the developing world that have a common heritage of colonialism and dualistic systems of land tenure. This book will be of great interest to students, scholars and practitioners wanting to understand the role of law and land tenure in African development.

The Oxford Handbook of Poverty and Child Development Valerie Maholmes, Rosalind B. King, Ph.D., 2012-05-21 Comprehensive and integrative. The Oxford Handbook of Poverty and Child Development describes the contextual and social ecology of children living in poverty and illuminates the biological and behavioral interactions that either promote optimal development or that place children at risk of having poor developmental outcomes.

From Agriculture to Agricology Professor Dani Wadada Nabudere, Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection (MISTRA), 2013-07-01 In this meditation, respected Ugandan academic Dani Wadada Nabudere traces the roots of the global economic crisis and warns of the threat that the decline of Western nations poses to the African continent: the final frontier for those in search of new lands and resources to exploit. As a deterrent to what he sees as the encroachment of super profiteers looking to Africa for the land to increase their profits in industrial agriculture, Nabudere advocates for what he terms community sites of knowledge: that is, the use of indigenous tools and knowledge to revitalize the lives of Africa's people. The book puts forth the belief that any dependence on imported knowledge and material instruments will only lead to the entrenchment of colonial stereotypes and that indigenous knowledge is imbued with the roots of complex ecosystems that require the inputs of a diversity of expertise and experiences and that are capable of producing the knowledge necessary for the residents of the African continent to reclaim the future Political Ecology of African Peace Parks Maano Ramutsindela, 2025-11-06 Peace parks are imagined landscapes and seascapes created through narratives and science This book uses a political ecology framework to explore the colonial and uneven geography of peace parks in post independence Africa It illuminates the regional milieus impacting these parks and the consequent socioecological and political dynamics This book curates a space for multiple voices and knowledges of peace parks and highlights the limits to truth claims It presents peace parks as a milieu that enables the assemblage of underexamined concepts in political ecology The book advances four arguments The first is that critical scholarship on the peace parks initiative in Africa and elsewhere has been crowded out by a dominant and well sponsored narrative of these parks Second the ideology of peace parks capitalises on societal aspirations and challenges to wage the war of the mind Third peace parks are a geographical expression of coloniality The fourth argument is that the regional dynamics account for the uneven geography of peace parks in Africa These dynamics reveal the symbiotic relations between politics and ecology The founding of peace parks animates resource politics but also depoliticises the resource question Situated in the ongoing debates on protecting the planet in an unequal world and the pathways for a just society this book will be of interest to researchers of African studies political ecology human geography sociology environmental studies and political science Paying Attention to Mudrocks: Priceless! Daniel Larsen, Sven O. Egenhoff, Neil S. Fishman, 2015-09-23 The case studies included in this volume span two overall thematic blocks the first one focuses on mudstone deposition in several settings and the second focuses on the diagenetic processes that have affected important mudstone units The two papers opening the volume describe recent lake sedimentation from South America and Africa respectively The Psychosocial Aspects of a Deadly Epidemic Judy Kuriansky, 2016-03-21 Edited by a clinical psychologist who has been on the ground helping to develop psychosocial support for Ebola survivors in one of the hardest hit regions of West Africa this book explains the devastating emotional aspects of the epidemic and its impact on survivors and the population in West Africa families in the diaspora and people in the United States and other countries It also describes lessons learned from past epidemics like HIV AIDS and SARS and valuable approaches to healing from future epidemics While the devastating Ebola epidemic has been contained the effects of this outbreak referred to by the World Health Organization as the most severe acute public health emergency seen in modern times have wreaked a tremendous emotional toll on the populations of West Africa as well as on families and survivors worldwide This groundbreaking book covers the psychosocial needs programs and policies related to the Ebola epidemic and examines broader lessons of the outbreak such as changes in the ways in which healing from future epidemics can be handled Edited by Judy Kuriansky PhD a noted clinical psychologist and United Nations NGO representative with extensive experience helping after disasters worldwide and direct experience gained from being on the ground in West Africa in the midst of the epidemic this book identifies and explains universal psychological factors at play in all such crises It debunks myths regarding Ebola and describes the resulting psychological and social harm caused by the epidemic The chapters cover overarching emotional issues and problems as well as the long term impact on at risk groups such as children women and health workers the impact of emotional issues on social and economic life responses of government officials media and various aid organizations and solutions being offered by groups worldwide including service and humanitarian organizations politicians policymakers and public health education groups
