Education and International Development, 2000-2020 Ian Wash, 2024-08-22 Education and International Development 2000 2020 A Constructivist Critique of the One size fits all Liberal Model advances the claim that there exists a liberal theory of international education Ian Wash argues that the assumed harmony of this model is the main source of dispute in the field of education and international development The liberal thinking behind the aspirations for education the political levers necessary for its effective governance and the ideas behind the policies all have contributed towards growing tensions that prevented international education from achieving optimal functionality Through a qualitative discourse analysis of the key policy documents produced between 2000 and 2020 Wash reveals how the liberal model was discursively constructed as a grand narrative of three acts that chronicles the vision process and outcomes of international education Such a rendering brings an understanding of the hidden conflicts essential for finding a resolution to this policy puzzle thereby improving the prosperity and wellbeing of those in poorer countries

Conflict and Catholic Social Ethics Taylor J. Ott, 2024-11-01 This book focuses on the question of how to understand conflict and its place in Catholic and Christian social ethics The author examines Catholic social teaching CST for its explicit mentions of conflict or contention and analyzes the way that CST addresses the subjects of peace labor and environment While CST offers precedent to think about conflict within the frame of Catholic ethics its lack of explicit engagement remains a major obstacle to a full rich and concrete understanding of the fabric of society and the work of social justice Any social ethic that is not informed by the presence of conflict misses a major dynamic in society and therefore leads to ethical judgements that are at best inadequate and at worst actively harmful Building upon the insight of respected thinkers within Catholic social thought this study is based on an interdisciplinary method that engages sociology political theory postcolonial theory and intersectional feminist ethics The book will be of particular interest to theological ethicists and those who work with modern CST
