1 Going underground

1.1 Relic

1 Discussions should be based on the idea of DarkParis being in the mystery genre. Learners might consider the following:

- The title – what does the word ‘dark’ suggest literally and metaphorically? Link to the darkness in the extract but also other connotations of darkness.
- The literal meaning of the word ‘Relic’ and what this could suggest about the character. Link to the content of the extract particularly (as if she belonged to another time). ‘Louis’ is a normal, everyday name (in contrast to the other characters), signifying a recognisable, real-world character common to protagonists in some fantasy texts. He is the reader’s identifiable, sympathetic character.
- The setting, and how it builds atmosphere, linking ideas to the extract: ancient catacombs, narrow tunnels, back streets of Paris. Learners may contrast this with the mundane nature of local supermarket and small apartment.
- The unanswered questions readers may have about the events so far: Who is Relic? How did she know Louis’s name? Who is The Doorkeeper? What does she mean by the one? Why does she want him to come back to the catacombs the next day? They all point to the mystery genre.
- Responses to the picture will vary.

2 Paragraphs should include some of the following:

- The explicit information revealed about Louis: he is 17 (young), lives in a small apartment (sense of confinement), has a job in a local supermarket (unfulfilling with narrow prospects), he is bored (looking for excitement), open to being manipulated, which may make him an easy target.

- Who is The Doorkeeper and what does you’re the one mean? What will Louis be asked to do? What will happen at nine o’clock the following evening?

3 Discussions may include consideration of the following:

- Phrases such as the shadows . . . dance on the walls, it felt unnatural, narrow tunnels provoke an uneasy response.
- The use of a short paragraph that asks a question – How did he end up here – and why? – allows the writer to add in explicit details about Louis and explain the situation he is in. The stress on how dull and uneventful his life is suggests he may be looking for adventure.
- The mention of The Doorkeeper adds intrigue, mystery and uncertainty. What is beyond the door? Why does Relic refer to Louis as the one? What has he been selected for?

4 Discussions should include:

- personal responses to the text, supported by reasons
- the way that the backstory is incorporated to provide information about Louis and his situation, whereas Relic remains a mystery
- how the story is narrated through Louis’s eyes so we know more about him than Relic – how does that affect reader interest?

5 Learners write structured summaries of their discussions in Activity 4.
