Learning History Know About Making History Fun:

Learning History Steven Turner, 2015-01-06 Today educators are working to promote the study of history in the schools and at home Knowledge of our history enables us to understand our nation's traditions its conflicts and its central ideas and values Knowledge of world history enables us to understand other cultures read more Making History Mine Sarah Cooper, 2023-10-10 Middle school history teachers confront the same challenge every day how to convey the breadth and depth of a curriculum that spans centuries countries and cultures In Making History Mine Sarah Cooper shows teachers how to use thematic instruction to link skills to content knowledge By combining thought provoking activities and rich assessments Sarah encourages teachers to challenge students to make history personal and relevant to their lives

Making History Tim Betz, 2023-04-15 While first person interpretation and historic crafts have long been part of the museum world current movements in the maker movement in libraries and schools have occurred mostly outside of the museum world Instead Makerspace in Museums Hands On History in Museums and Historic Sites shows the importance of the Maker Movement for museums and historic sites and presents a roadmap to building planning researching and using a makerspace alongside more traditional museum programming It calls for a revitalization of living history which can be done through makerspaces and the maker movement Highlights include Why museums and makerspaces are a natural fit together Ways to organize and create a makerspace in a museum of any budget Creating a makerspace and culture of making that is inclusive and for the entirety of the community Strategies for researching historic making techniques and adapting them to the modern world Creating meaningful makerspace centered programming The processes and methods explored in this book will help produce a sustainable makerspace that will help the museum or historic site that adopts it reach new audiences creating growth and new museums stakeholders Likewise through calling for a recalibration of living history through the language of the makerspace this project calls for new approaches to living history Thus it is a call for a disruption to the status quo and a push towards sustainable and meaningful living history Thinking Like a Historian

Nikki Mandell, Bobbie Malone, 2013-06-19 Thinking Like a Historian will help you bring history to your classroom and reenergize your teaching of this crucial discipline in new ways A group of experienced Wisconsin historians and educators representing elementary through university levels developed and piloted this framework The Thinking Like a Historian charts which are the centerpiece of Thinking Like a Historian were created by condensing into simplified and easily remembered language the combined expertise of the historical profession as expressed in the published standards of the American Historical Association the Organization of American Historians the National Council for History Education the National History Standards and state standards for Wisconsin and California Thinking Like a Historian is the fruit of our thinking and practice grounded in the highest standards of the discipline designed to stimulate your own thinking planning and teaching Adapt or draw inspiration from the examples for engaging and effective lessons and classroom activities Return again and again to the common language of Thinking Like a Historian as a foundation that can connect and develop students curiosity about and understand of history throughout their school years As history educators we wholeheartedly embrace the responsibility and opportunity to guide the next generation to think more deeply about the past to think like historians

The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning History Richard Harris,Katharine Burn,Mary Woolley,2013-10-15 The Guided Reader to Teaching and Learning History draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential history education writers representing a range of perspectives from leading classroom practitioners to academic researchers and highlighting key debates surrounding a central range of issues affecting secondary History teachers This book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms Each extract is accompanied by an introduction a summary of the key points and issues raised questions to promote discussion and suggestions for further reading to extend thinking Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme the chapters include The purpose of history education Pupil perspectives on history education Assessment and progression in history Inclusion in history Diversity in history Teaching difficult issues Technology and history education Change and continuity Historical Interpretations Professional development for history teachers Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers including those working towards Masters level qualifications as well as existing teachers this accessible but critically provocative text is an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of History Education

The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1903 Popular Educator ,1919 G.A.M.E. Games Autonomy Motivation & Education Menno Deen,2015-05-21 This thesis reviews and utilizes concepts from cognitive psychology developmental psychology and game design to bring forth a number of design principles for educational games that may improve students motivation to learn Its main contribution is a novel approach to serious game design namely envisioning play and learning as a restructuring practice This change of perspective from a formal game design approach focused on rules and regulations towards a more activity centered approach focused on process and style may help designers to leverage the motivational potential of games in order to make education more engaging to students
