Philosophy of Composition Nowadays the number of commercial magazines publishing short stories has decreased but they appear to have found their place in online publications Today reading has become a minor activity in people's lives with globalisation technological progress and a fast growing media industry In schools pupil's interest is increasingly difficult to stimulate especially when it comes to literature in the English Second Language classroom Students are used to fast information input without necessarily having to become active themselves they lose concentration easily when the learning process takes too long or they lose patience when they do not understand right away The use of short stories in the English Foreign Language classroom is one possibility to respond to this problem teachers of foreign languages have to face Therefore this paper is going to define the genre of the short story as such to create a basis for the following presentation of the benefits of short stories for the North Rhine Westphalian English Language Classroom In the next step the curricula and guidelines are taken into consideration in order to develop some ideas on how to implement The Machine that Won the War by Isaac Asimov in class These will be integrated into a lesson plan with several activities around the story There are several theoretical works dealing with the lecture of short stories starting with Poe's work mentioned above Allen Walter's The Short Story in English Charles E May's The Short Story The Reality Artifice or Frank Myszor's The Modern Short Story Some articles have been written e.g. by Rüdiger Ahrens Die bisherige Rolle der Short Story im Englischunterricht der Sekundarstufe II dealing with the use of short stories as a way of teaching literature Most has certainly been written about didactics of English in German classrooms such as Wolfgang Gehring's Englische Fachdidaktik Eine Einführung Englisch lernen und lehren Didaktik des Englischunterrichts by Johannes P. Timm or Egon Werlich's Praktische Methodik des Fremdsprachenunterrichts mit authentischen Texten
