Lessing's Laocoon David E. Wellbery, 1984 Rethinking Lessing's Laocoon Avi Lifschitz, Michael

Squire, 2017-09-15 Gotthold Ephraim Lessing first published Laocoon oder über die Grenzen der Mahlerey und Poesie Laocoon or on the Limits of Painting and Poetry in 1766 Over the last 250 years Lessing's essay has exerted an incalculable influence on western critical thinking Not only has it directed the history of post Enlightenment aesthetics it has also shaped the very practices of poetry and painting in a myriad of different ways In this anthology of specially commissioned chapters comprising the first ever edited book on the Laocoon in English a range of leading critical voices has been brought together to reassess Lessing's essay on its 250th anniversary Combining perspectives from multiple disciplines including classics intellectual history philosophy aesthetics media studies comparative literature and art history the book explores the Laocoon from a plethora of critical angles Chapters discuss Lessing's interpretation of ancient art and poetry the cultural backdrops of the eighteenth century and the validity of the Laocoon's observations in the fields of aesthetics semiotics and philosophy The volume shows how the Laocoon exploits Greek and Roman models to sketch the proper spatial and temporal limits Grenzen of what Lessing called poetry and painting at the same time it demonstrates how Lessing's essay is embedded within Enlightenment theories of art perception and historical interpretation as well as within nascent eighteenth century ideas about the scientific study of Classical antiquity Altertumswissenschaft To engage critically with the Laocoon and to make sense of its legacy over the last 250 years consequently involves excavating various classical presences by looking back to the Graeco Roman past the volume demonstrates Lessing forged a whole new tradition of modern aesthetics Lessing

Yearbook XVIII Richard E. Schade, 1986 Liminal Semiotics Melanie Maria Lörke, 2013-10-24 Grenzen ihre Überschreitung ihre Auflösung und ihre Wiederherstellung sind ein bisher nicht systematisch erforschtes Schlüsselkonzept für das Verständnis romantischer Literatur Diese semiotisch komparatistische Grundsatzstudie analysiert über drei Kulturen hinweg vergleichend eine Vielfalt heterogener literarischer Entgrenzungskonzepte in der Romantik und entwickelt auf der Basis der romantischen Zeichentheorie ein Modell für die Analyse transepochaler Entgrenzungskonzepte Dabei geht sie über bekannte Konzepte des paradoxen Subjekts hinaus indem Entgrenzung als Interdependenz von Subjekt Raum und Zeichen umfassend in detaillierten Lektüren literarischer Texte aus Deutschland den USA und Großbritannien sowie in theoretischen Exkursen untersucht wird von Novalis und Coleridge über Melville bis hin zu Deleuze und Guattari Die Arbeit ist somit nicht nur ein Beitrag zur Romantikforschung sondern lotet auch die methodologischen Möglichkeiten derselben neu aus Die Studie wurde 2012 mit dem von der Ernst Reuter Gesellschaft der Freunde Förderer und Ehemaligen der Freien Universität Berlin e.V. gestifteten Ernst Reuter Preis als herausragende und zukunftsweisende Promotionsarbeit ausgezeichnet Boundaries constitute a key concept in Romanticism their transgression their elimination but also their reconstruction By analyzing the triad of sign subject and space this study provides a comprehensive analysis of boundaries in German English and American

Romanticism Its trans epochal approach reveals a shared dynamic of a multiplicity of heterogeneous boundary phenomena ranging from the late 18th century to postmodern Romantic texts and constructs a model for the examination of limits a theory of a limitation The known concept of the transgressive Romantic subject is integrated into this triadic model whose primordial site of a limitation however is the semiotics of Romanticism With a creative theoretical design that allows the reader to survey readings of individual texts as well as broader theoretical frameworks Liminal Semiotics offers a new perspective on a variety of literary texts and theories ranging from Novalis and Coleridge to Melville and finally to Deleuze and Guattari The thesis was awarded the Ernst Reuter Prize 2012 for outstanding dissertations at Freie Universit t Berlin

German Aesthetic and Literary Criticism: Winckelmann, Lessing, Hamann, Herder, Schiller and Goethe Hugh Barr Nisbet, 1985-12-05 Anthology of translated extracts from their works Laocoon's Body and the Aesthetics of Pain Simon Richter, 1992 Before the sixteenth century no one had seen the Greek statue the Laocoon since antiquity but popular aesthetic judgment insisted that it was an ideal work of art the unapproachable model for imitation and aspiration When in 1506 a vintner found the statue just outside Rome the contradiction between the ideal and the reality was readily apparent the statue depicted not a vision of beauty but the representation of a body in pain Since the eighteenth century the Laocoon has been at the crux of German aesthetics Laocoon's Body and the Aesthetics of Pain examines the writings of Winckelmann Lessing Herder Moritz and Goethe and seeks to discover what drew these theorists of classical beauty to the statue's representation of pain The book examines the contradictions in and between their respective understandings of the Laocoon Taking his cue from the original texts Richter sets the primary aesthetic discourse against the foil of the unexpected discourse networks His reading of Winckelmann unfolds against the eighteenth century culture of castrati He shows Herder and Goethe winning important insights from the physiological experiments of Albrecht von Haller In every case the fundamental dichotomy of pain and beauty is shown to lie at the heart of both the statue and the discourse that concerns it Richter argues that the relation of pain and beauty is crucial to the various versions of classical aesthetics that were developed in the last half of the eighteenth century According to the author there is no question that the Laocoon statue represents a body in pain Nor is there any reason to decide if the Laocoon is a beautiful work of art The single important fact is that eighteenth century Germans since Winckelmann theorized the statue as beautiful and in the course of their thinking were obliged to deal with the question of pain in one way or another even if by some strategy of avoidance Richter's thesis is that the classical aesthetics of beauty is at the same time and even more an aesthetics of pain Simon Richter is an assistant professor of German at the University of Maryland at College Park A Ph D from the John Hopkins University his articles reviews and translations have appeared in such journals as The Lessing Yearbook South Atlantic Review Germanic Review and SubStance Image and Incarnation Walter Melion, Lee Palmer Wandel, 2015-09-01 The doctrine of the Incarnation was wellspring and catalyst for theories of images verbal material and spiritual Section I Representing the Mystery of the

Incarnation takes up questions about the representability of the mystery Section II Imago Dei and the Incarnate Word investigates how Christ's status as the image of God was seen to license images material and spiritual Section III Literary Figurations of the Incarnation considers the verbal production of images contemplating the divine and human nature of Christ Section IV Transformative Analogies of Matter and Spirit delves into ways that material properties and processes in their effects on the beholder were analogized to Christ's hypostasis Section V Visualizing the Flesh of Christ considers the relation between the Incarnation and the Passion
