Eucharist and Ecclesiology Wendell Willis, 2017-01-06 In the late twentieth century and since ecumenical discussions on the nature and unity of the church have often centered on the Eucharist This book is focused on that intersection of church and Eucharist in current Christian relationships In the first part of the book representatives of the Orthodox tradition Paul Meyendorff the Roman Catholic tradition Denis Farkasfalvy and the Protestant tradition Gary Badcock discuss the relationship of Eucharist and church These essays are followed by an overview and response to these theme essays by Everett Ferguson who has published often on the topics The second part of the book contains essays on particular issues important for understanding the Eucharist and Christian faith These essays also come from the three theological traditions of the featured essays but focus on more specific issues behind the larger discussion The essays address the New Testament texts on Eucharist and important later Christian writers This book will be of value to scholars studying the Eucharist in the New Testament and the early Christian church as well as to clergy who need to instruct congregations on the ecumenical discussions of the Eucharist

Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself
