Marionettes Helen Fling, Charles Forbell, 1973-01-01 Instructions for constructing and costuming marionettes stringing them for one or two hand control manipulating them and staging a show Practical Puppetry A-Z Carol R.

Exner, 2005-09-08 Puppetry is an exciting flexible malleable art form that can engage the creative forces of children or adults Puppets can not only tell a story they can be used to enhance the curriculum present an idea or a concept in a compelling way or teach any number of necessary skills Children and adults presenting a puppet play are given a sense of their own inventive power This reference work offers an A to Z view of working with puppets It covers everything from the basic strategies of advertising and marketing puppet productions to assembling the puppets out of household materials such as paper bags cereal boxes or gloves to the more elaborate sculpting of armatures Stages curtains and props are also discussed along with the history of puppetry Numerous illustrations give a visual of many of the finished products This work concludes with an annotated bibliography and index The White Space Between Ami Sands Brodoff, 2008-01-01 A family's story of the Holocaust lies buried in the soil of a graveyard in Prague in the old neighborhoods of Montreal in the serenity of a small New Jersey town and in the memory of Jana a woman finally asked to bear witness Far from the landscapes of her earlier life

Jana raised her daughter Willow on the beautiful scrapbooks she kept of her own childhood in Prague before World War II But her stories end with the beginning of the Holocaust and Willow knows little of her mother's life during the war and its immediate aftermath Jana's memories of this time are so guarded that Willow is uncertain who her father is the answer left behind in Montreal the city where Jana first settled after the war When both Willow and Jana find themselves back in Montreal the past can no longer be hidden New loves are found and lost loves rekindled and mother and daughter decide to journey to Prague to unearth the stories that can no longer stay buried

Creative Expressive Activities and Asperger's Syndrome Judith Martinovich,2006 Martinovich combines activities such as art making drama music puppetry yoga and photography with conventional cognitive behavioural interventions to support individuals with AS The different activities complement and reinforce each other and are designed to address specific traits of the autism spectrum to aid skills development
