

Market Challenge

By Gary Smith
1998

The 1990s have been a decade of change and transition. One of the most dramatic changes has been the increasing emphasis on the importance of the customer. The customer is now the focus of the business and the driving force behind the success of the organization. This has led to a number of changes in the way that organizations operate, including a focus on customer service, a reduction in bureaucracy, and a shift towards a more customer-oriented culture.
