Food Processing Stephanie Clark, Stephanie Jung, Buddhi Lamsal, 2014-06-03 FOOD PROCESSING Food Processing Principles and Applications Second Edition is the fully revised new edition of this best selling food technology title Advances in food processing continue to take place as food scientists and food engineers adapt to the challenges imposed by emerging pathogens environmental concerns shelf life quality and safety as well as the dietary needs and demands of humans In addition to covering food processing principles that have long been essential to food quality and safety this edition of Food Processing Principles and Applications unlike the former edition covers microbial enzyme inactivation kinetics alternative food processing technologies as well as environmental and sustainability issues currently facing the food processing industry The book is divided into two sections the first focusing on principles of food processing and handling and the second on processing technologies and applications As a hands on guide to the essential processing principles and their applications covering the theoretical and applied aspects of food processing in one accessible volume this book is a valuable tool for food industry professionals across all manufacturing sectors and serves as a relevant primary or supplemental text for students of food science 75 Years Aloft: Royal Australian Air Force Air Training Corps: Australian Air Force Cadets, 1941-2016

Matthew Glozier, 2015-12-03 This book celebrates 75 years of Air Force cadet activity in Australia 1941 2016 The organisation has had a tremendous impact upon the lives of tens of thousands of Australians over our 75 year history Since 1982 it has enhanced the lives of young women as well as men The book begins in WWII with the need to pre train capable and committed keen lads Over 30 000 Australian boys were air cadets 1941 1945 with almost 13 000 going on to active service in the war Air Force cadets survived into peacetime to become an aviation focussed youth development organisation providing flying training in a military atmosphere with the aim of inspiring cadets to join the RAAF There are currently over 8 000 Air Force cadets and adult staff around Australia Aviation centred youth development in a RAAF service environment remains our central focus Ploughshares and Swords Jayita Sarkar, 2022-07-15 India s nuclear program is often misunderstood as an inward looking endeavor of secretive technocrats In Ploughshares and Swords Jayita Sarkar challenges this received wisdom narrating a global story of India s nuclear program during its first forty years The book foregrounds the program s civilian and military features by probing its close relationship with the space program Through nuclear and space technologies India s leaders served the technopolitical aims of economic modernity and the geopolitical goals of deterring adversaries The politically savvy transnationally connected scientists and engineers who steered the program obtained technologies materials and information through a variety of state and nonstate actors from Europe and North America including both superpowers They thus maneuvered around Cold War politics and the choke points of the nonproliferation regime Hyperdiversification increased choices for the leaders of the nuclear program but reduced democratic accountability at home The nuclear program became a consensus enforcing device in the name of the nation Ploughshares and Swords is a provocative new history with global implications It shows how geopolitical and technopolitical visions influence decisions about the nation after decolonization Thanks to generous funding from the Swiss National Science Foundation the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories

Captive Audience Catherine Gidney, 2019-04-02 White Spot a popular BC restaurant chain solicits hamburger concepts from third and fourth grade students and one of the student's ideas becomes a feature on the kids menu Home Depot donates playground equipment to an elementary school and the ribbon cutting ceremony culminates in a community swathed in corporate swag temporary tattoos and a new Home Depot song written by a teacher and sung by the children Kindergarten students return home with a school district prescribed dental hygiene flyer featuring a maze leading to a tube of Crest toothpaste Schools receive five cents for each flyer handed to a student While commercialism has existed in our schools for over a century the corporate invasion of our schools reached unprecedented heights in the 1990s and 2000s after two decades of federal funding cuts and an increasing tendency to apply business models to the education system Constant cutbacks have left school trustees administrators teachers and parents with difficult decisions about how to finance programs and support students Meanwhile studies on the impact of advertising and consumer culture on children make clear that the effects are harmful both to the individual child and the broader culture Captive Audience explores this compelling history of branding the classroom in Canada
