

SSLC EXAMINATION, MARCH 2022
ENGLISH
Second Language

SET II

Time: 2 1/2 Hours

Total Score: 80

Instructions

- There is a cool-off time of 15 minutes in addition to the writing time of 2 1/2 hours.
- Read the questions before answering.
- Certain questions have choice. Follow the choice regulations
- When you select a question, all its sub questions (if any) must be answered from the same question itself.

PART I

A. Answer any four questions from 1 to 6. Each carries 1 score.

Read the following passage from the speech 'The Danger of a Single Story' and answer the following questions (1 x 4 = 4)

Years later, I thought about this when I left Nigeria to go to university in the United States. I was 19. My American roommate was shocked by me. She asked where I had learned to speak English so well, and was confused when I said that Nigeria happened to have English as its official language. She asked if she could listen to what she called my 'tribal music' and was consequently very disappointed when I produced my tape of Mariah Carey.

She had felt sorry for me even before she saw me. Her default position towards me, as an African, was a kind of patronising well-meaning pity. My roommate had a single story of Africa. In this single story, there was no possibility of Africans being similar to her in any way, no possibility of feelings more complex than pity, no possibility of a connection as human equals.

I must say that before I went to the U.S., I didn't consciously identify as African. But in the U.S., whenever Africa came up, people turned to me. I did come to embrace this new identity, and in many ways I think of myself now as African, although I still get quite irritable when Africa is referred to as a country. After I had spent some years in the U.S. as an African, I began to understand my roommate's response to me. If I had not grown up in Nigeria, and if all I knew about Africa were from popular images, I too would think that Africa was a place of beautiful landscapes, beautiful animals, and incomprehensible people unable to speak for themselves and waiting to be saved by a kind, white foreigner. I would see Africans in the same way that I, as a child, had seen Fide's family.

1. Why was her room-mate shocked?
2. What was the 'single story' Adichie's room-mate had about Africa?
3. What were the things not possible in the eyes of Adichie's room-mate?
4. When did she embrace the new identity of an African?
5. Why did the professor say that her novels were not authentically Africa?
6. The professor had only a single story Africa. What was that?

B. Answer all questions from 7 to 10. Each carries 1 score.

Read the lines from the poem 'Blowin' in the Wind' and answer the following questions: (1 x 4 = 4)

Yes, and how many years can a mountain exist
Before it is washed to the sea?
Yes, and how many years can some people exist
Before they're allowed to be free?
Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head
And pretend that he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

March Gradeeconomics Question Paper 2014

Michal Rosen-Zvi

March Gradeeconomics Question Paper 2014:

Emerging Economies During and After the Great Recession Philip Arestis, M. Sawyer, 2016-04-08 The International Papers in Political Economy IPPE series explores the latest developments in political economy This twelfth volume presents a collection of eight papers analysing the emergence and economic problems of the emerging economies during and after the international financial crisis of 2007 8 and the subsequent Great Recession The contributions range from an analysis of the international financial crisis of 2007 8 in general terms to an analysis of the same but concentrating on the emerging economies before turning to groups of economies Arab African and Eastern European countries and two relevant but individual countries namely China and Turkey This book offers students scholars researchers and policy makers detailed analysis and informed commentary on the origins of the international financial crisis of 2007 8 and the great recession by focusing on its effect on emerging countries

The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo, Lynne Chester, Carlo D'Ippoliti, 2017-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the latest work on economic theory and policy from a pluralistic heterodox perspective Contributions throughout the Handbook explore different theoretical perspectives including Marxian radical political economics Post Keynesian Sraffian economics institutionalist evolutionary economics feminist economics social economics Regulation theory the Social Structure of Accumulation approach and ecological economics They explain the structural properties and dynamics of capitalism as well as propose economic and social policies for the benefit of the majority of the population This book aims firstly to provide realistic and coherent theoretical frameworks to understand the capitalist economy in a constructive and forward looking manner Secondly it delineates the future directions as well as the current state of heterodox economics and then provides both heat and light on controversial issues drawing out the commonalities and differences among different heterodox economic approaches The volume also envisions transformative economic and social policies for the majority of the population and explains why economics is and should be treated as a social science This Handbook will be of compelling interest to those including students who wish to learn about alternative economic theories and policies that are rarely found in conventional economics textbooks or discussed in the mainstream media and to critical economists and other social scientists who are concerned with analyzing pressing socio economic issues

To the Brink of Destruction Timothy J. Sinclair, 2021-11-15 To the Brink of Destruction exposes how America's rating agencies helped generate the global financial crisis of 2007 and beyond surviving and thriving in the aftermath Despite widespread scrutiny rating agencies continued to operate on the same business model and wield extraordinary power exerting extensive influence over public policy Timothy J Sinclair brings the shadowy corners of this story to life by examining congressional testimony showing how the wheels of accountability turned and ultimately failed during the crisis He asks how and why the agencies risked their lucrative franchise by aligning so closely with a process of financial innovation that came undone during the crisis What he finds is that key institutions including the agencies changed from being judges to being advocates years before the crisis eliminating a vital safety valve meant to hinder financial excess Sinclair's well researched investigation offers a clear accessible explanation of structured finance and how it works To the Brink of Destruction avoids tired accusations instead providing novel insight into the role rating agencies played in the worst crisis of modern global capitalism

Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies PB Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2020-12-16 Ever since Jim O'Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geopolitical tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals

Patent Settlements in the Pharmaceutical Industry under US Antitrust and EU Competition Law Amalia Athanasiadou, 2018-08-14 Reverse payment settlements or pay for delay agreements between originators and generic drug manufacturers create heated debates regarding the balance between competition and intellectual property law These settlements touch upon sensitive issues such as timely generic entry and access to affordable pharmaceuticals and also the need to preserve innovation incentives for originators and to strengthen the pipeline of life saving pharmaceuticals This book is one of the first to critically and comparatively analyse how such patent settlements and various other strategies employed by the pharmaceutical industry are scrutinised by both United States US and European courts and enforcement authorities and to discuss the applicable legal tests and the main criteria used for their assessment The book's ultimate objective is to provide guidance to the pharmaceutical industry regarding the types of patent settlements strategies and conduct which may be problematic from US antitrust and European Union EU competition law perspectives and to assist practitioners in structuring settlements which are both efficient and compliant To this end an exhaustive legal analysis of some of the most controversial issues regarding pharmaceutical patent settlements is provided including the lengthy split among US Circuit Courts on the issue of pay for delay settlements its resolution by the US Supreme Court in FTC v Actavis and subsequent jurisprudence the decision of Lundbeck v Commission by the European General Court and the Servier decision of the European Commission the Roche Novartis decision of the European Court of Justice and the most important decisions by National Competition Authorities on pharma patent settlements in the EU an overview of other types of strategies such as product hopping and product reformulations no authorised generic commitments problematic side deals mechanisms affecting generic substitution the rejection of the scope of the patent test in both the US and the EU and the balancing of patent law and antitrust law considerations in the prevailing applicable tests the benefits of settlements and the main criteria for assessing their legitimacy under US antitrust and EU competition law The analysis provides concrete examples of both illegitimate and legitimate settlements and strategies emphasising on conduct that falls within a grey zone and on the circumstances and criteria under which such conduct could be deemed problematic from an antitrust perspective This book will serve as a valuable guide for pharmaceutical companies wishing to minimise the risk of engaging in conduct that could potentially infringe US antitrust and EU competition law It further aims to save courts and enforcement agencies and also practitioners and academics considerable time and resources by providing an exhaustive analysis of the relevant caselaw with the ultimate goal to increase legal certainty on the most controversial aspects of patent settlements in the pharmaceutical industry
