The Debt Trap Josh Mitchell, 2021-08-03 AN NPR AND NEW YORK POST BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR From acclaimed Wall Street Journal reporter Josh Mitchell the devastating account The Wall Street Journal of student debt in America In 1981 a new executive at Sallie Mae took home the company s financial documents to review You ve got to be shitting me he later told the company s CEO This place is a gold mine Over the next four decades the student loan industry that Sallie Mae and Congress created blew up into a crisis that would submerge a generation of Americans into 1.5 trillion in student debt In The Debt Trap Wall Street Journal reporter Josh Mitchell tells the vivid and compelling Chicago Tribune untold story of the scandals scams predatory actors and government malpractice that have created the behemoth that one of its original architects called a monster As he charts the jaw dropping Jeffrey Selingo New York Times bestselling author of Who Gets in and Why seventy year history of student debt in America Mitchell never loses sight of the countless student victims ensnared by an exploitative system that depends on their debt Mitchell also draws alarming parallels to the housing crisis in the late 2000s showing the catastrophic consequences student debt has had on families and the nation s future Mitchell s character driven narrative is necessary reading The New York Times for anyone wanting to understand the central economic issue of our day

The Pennsylvania Railroad, Volume 2 Albert J. Churella, 2023-11-21 By 1933 the Pennsylvania Railroad had been in existence for nearly ninety years During this time it had grown from a small line struggling to build west from the state capital in Harrisburg to the dominant transportation company in the United States In Volume 2 of The Pennsylvania Railroad Albert J Churella continues his history of this giant of American transportation At the beginning of the twentieth century the Pennsylvania Railroad was the world s largest business corporation and the nation s most important railroad By 1917 the Pennsylvania Railroad like the nation itself was confronting a very different world The war that had consumed Europe since 1914 was about to engulf the United States Amid unprecedented demand for transportation the federal government undertook the management of the railroads while new labor policies and new regulatory initiatives coupled with a postwar recession would challenge the company like never before Only time would tell whether the years that followed would signal a new beginning for the Pennsylvania Railroad or the beginning of the end The Pennsylvania Railroad The Age of Limits 1917 1933 represents an unparalleled look at the history the personalities and the technologies of this iconic American company in a period that marked the shift from building an empire to exploring the limits of their power Minerals Yearbook Geological Survey,Interior Department,Mines Bureau,2018-04-19 This volume of the Minerals Yearbook provides an annual review of mineral production and trade and of mineral related government and industry developments in more than 175 foreign countries It is normally published in separate books that cover specific regions In this publication the regional books are combined into one commemorative volume These annual reviews are designed to provide timely statistical data on mineral commodities in various countries Each report includes sections on government policies and programs environmental issues trade and production data industry structure and ownership commodity sector developments infrastructure and a summary outlook More information is available on the three volumes of the Minerals Yearbook Regional Areas Covered Africa and the Middle East Asia and the Pacific Europe and Central Eurasia North America Central America and the Caribbean South America Discrimination based on Colour, Ethnic Origin, Language, Religion and Belief in

Turkey's Education System Nurcan Kaya,2015-10-27 The Turkish government is urged to make a fundamental shift in its approach to education by Minority Rights Group International MRG in a new report A long standing focus on state building has been supplemented by increasing emphasis on religious teaching Both feature strongly in the education system in Turkey making schools a focus of discrimination The report Discrimination based on Colour Ethnic Origin Language Religion and Belief in Turkey s Education System reveals evidence of discrimination of minority groups and suggests comprehensive reforms to effectively ensure equality The national education system which for decades aimed to create young Turkish nationalists has in recent years become a vehicle for raising young religious Turkish nationalists says Nurcan Kaya Turkey Coordinator of Minority Rights Group International Religious education is compulsory from grade four in primary schools While some information on world religions has been introduced the emphasis remains on teaching Sunni Muslim religious practices Children of Jewish and Christian families may apply to opt out but the process can be cumbersome and in many schools alternatives are not provided for them Non Muslim students who have opted out can still find themselves having to remain in the religious instruction class or alternatively having to wander in the school corridor making them vulnerable to taunts from pupils and even teachers The opt out possibility is still not available to children of other minorities Another issue is mother tongue education In 2012 a new elective on the living languages and dialects in Turkey was introduced but due to various limitations minorities remain marginalised others in the education system Subsequent to the 2012 reform the report monitors discrimination in the formal education system in the period of the academic year of 2014 2015 The findings are based on the field work of the Monitoring Discrimination in Education Network an alliance of 16 organizations working in

Turkey The report compiles numerous cases of discrimination based on language religion ethnicity skin colour and the level of income In order to bring about a fundamental solution to these problems in the education system the government must prioritise developing an approach that sees all groups as equal and that responds to demands for rights based on such an understanding of equality says Kaya The report highlights that Turkey has no anti discrimination law or an equality commission to which victims of discrimination can apply The existing legislation contains no effective and accessible means of judicial remedies or compensation Therefore many discriminatory practices are not reported to school administrations The entire education system is based on Turkishness Non Turkish groups are either not referred to or referred in a negative way says Kaya Education system has played a significant role in deepening conflict in society The positive representation of other groups in the education system would contribute to social peace and harmony In order to resolve the many problems in the education system that the current approach causes the overall aim of government education policy should be cleared of ideological references and the protection of children s best interests and the right to education in line with international standards should be considered its fundamental goal says the report
