A Delicate Task Catherine McTamaney Ed.D.,2012-07-26 There are despite the loneliness of our classrooms and the heartache of having been called to teach others on the path with us Teaching is hard Teaching in a Montessori path is even more so Montessorians are asked to give up so much of ourselves to make ourselves humble and lowly before the child to be servants to be scientists to be saints We often let ourselves down There it is then We will let ourselves down But there are others on the path with us We can lean on each other We can walk in each other's footsteps Sometimes we're at the front of the path Sometimes we're following another traveler Sometimes we're resting Sometimes the laughter of our group is so cacophonous that we forget how tired our feet are Sometimes we're so far ahead or behind that we can't even see each other anymore But we're not alone We are each other's navigational stars Montessori's words across generations guide us Our own words whispered in each other's ears or passed in notes or published in books they give us guidance too They remind us on the hardest days that we're not alone We are not alone We share certain tendencies certain traits common among humanity common across decades We are working in common toward a perfection we may never individually see But we're on the path And we're not alone
