Moonshots In Education Launching Blended Learning In The Classroom:

Moonshots in Education Esther Wojcicki, Lance Izumi, Alicia Chang, 2014-12-01 Moonshots in Education explores digital and online learning in the classroom and what it takes to make a moonshot. It gives several models and examples of schools that are already implementing digital learning and what the success rate has been. It also provides philosophical discussion, a variety of educational philosophies, and how each one empowers students and teachers. The book also provides tools to support teachers in most subject areas. The forward by James Franco explores how this type of blended real world learning has made a significant positive impact in his life. The Fuzzy and the Techie Scott Hartley, 2017-04-25 Artfully explains why it is time for us to get over the false division between the human and the technical. Tim Brown, CEO of IDEO and author of Change by Design. Scott Hartley first heard the terms fuzzy and techie while studying political science at Stanford University. If you majored in humanities or social sciences you were a fuzzy. If you majored in computer or hard sciences you were a techie. While Silicon Valley is generally considered a techie stronghold, the founders of companies like Airbnb, Pinterest, Slack, LinkedIn, PayPal, Stitch Fix, Reddit, and others are all fuzzies. In other words, people with backgrounds in the liberal arts. In this brilliantly counterintuitive book, Hartley shatters assumptions about business and education today. Learning to code is not enough. The soft skills: curiosity, communication, and collaboration, along with an understanding of psychology and society's gravest problems, are central to why technology has value. Fuzzies are the instrumental stewards of robots, artificial intelligence, and machine learning. They offer a human touch that is of equal, if not greater, importance in our technology-led world than what most techies can provide. For anyone doubting whether a well-rounded liberal arts education is practical in today's world, Hartley's work will come as an inspiring revelation. Finalist for the 2016 Financial Times McKinsey Bracken Bower Prize and A Financial Times Business Book of the Month. An Educator's Guide to Dual Language Instruction

Gayle Westerberg, Leslie Davison, 2016-04-14 This user-friendly book is a key resource for teachers and administrators to ensure their school's success in implementing and maintaining a dual language program. Authors Gayle Westerberg and Leslie Davison share their own experiences leading a dual language school, the obstacles they overcame, and the best practices they learned along the way. The book is filled with step-by-step instructions and strategies you can try immediately, as well as inspirational stories from educators in urban and rural dual language programs across the country. Topics include: Choosing a model for your dual language program and involving all stakeholders in the transition process; Marketing your program effectively to recruit students and staff, including international teachers; Implementing a standards-based instructional framework focused on direct vocabulary instruction, extensive reading, and using language in context; Setting proficiency targets and using internal and external assessments to track students' progress; Incorporating technology for a more interactive and engaging language learning experience. You'll also learn how to effectively transition your program through different grade levels and build a collaborative school culture for a strong, long-lasting K-12 dual language program.

Tucker, Tiffany Wycoff, Jason T. Green, 2016-09-03 Shift to blended learning to transform education Blended learning has the power to reinvent education but the transition requires a new approach to learning and a new skillset for educators Loaded with research and examples Blended Learning in Action demonstrates the advantages a blended model has over traditional instruction when technology is used to engage students both inside the classroom and online Readers will find Breakdowns of the most effective classroom setups for blended learning Tips for leaders Ideas for personalizing and differentiating instruction using technology Strategies for managing devices in schools Questions to facilitate professional development and deeper learning      Go Blended! Liz Arney, 2015-02-02 Craft a blended learning program tailor made for your students Go Blended is a practical implementation guide for educators interested in getting blended learning off the ground Author Liz Arney is a seasoned developer of blended learning programs at Aspire Public Schools and she also closely collaborates with district and charter leaders from across the country on this work Go Blended offers boots on the ground support for laying the foundation for a blended learning program in our schools and classrooms Throughout the book teachers with blended learning experience share helpful tips and lesson plans to help educators make purposeful choices in using technology to fulfill students needs without becoming an end in itself This useful guide also offers key documents and timelines to support a blended learning implementation and provides step by step practical advice for avoiding mistakes Readers will gain expert insight into both the broad and narrow of blended transition from sweeping concepts like program goals to nitty gritty details like teaching routines around technology use Technology is rapidly changing the landscape of education teacher effectiveness and student achievement are both tied to the ability to adapt to new technology and blended learning has become a hot topic in schools across the nation Go Blended helps school leaders and teachers take their first steps toward blended learning putting them in a better position to continuously adapt as the world changes You ll learn how to Investigate leadership and staff readiness to go blended Learn how to evaluate and purchase the right educational software Keep the program s goals in mind throughout the development process Teach lessons that set students up for success when using classroom technology Tailor the program to the students not the other way around Aspire s impressive track record of high performance along with a growing body of evidence from blended schools across the nation testifies to the reality that incorporating technology into the classroom can improve student outcomes But improved student outcomes will only occur when teachers and administrators intentionally tailor technology and curricula to meet their goals With Go Blended you can be confident that you re focused on the ultimate goal of blended learning increasing student achievement      Towards a Strategic Blend in Education TONY. LYNCH YEIGH (DAVID. WILLIS, ROYCE.), David Lynch, (Ju, Royce Willis, 2018-01-08 How might schools harness technological innovation for classroom effects In this book the authors seek to answer this question by introducing and investigating the concept of Blended Learning through a review of current research literature In this book the authors consolidate the current state of Blended Learning research by defining what is meant by Blended Learning before discussing specific technologies used in Blended Learning the professional development required of teachers and how to implement whole of school Blended Learning regimes in schools The book includes descriptions of popular Blended Learning models with real world examples of their implementation addressing both student and teacher perspectives This book will serve as a guide to hastening the progress of Blended Learning towards the improvement of student outcomes in a world of continuous technological innovation and social change     How to Raise Successful People Esther Wojcicki,2019 Outlines simple counterintuitive approaches to raising happy healthy and successful children through parental demonstrations of respectful examples and child directed activities that facilitate early independence and problem solving skills     Rethinking Leadership in a Complex, Multicultural, and Global Environment Adrianna J. Kezar,2008 This is a practical introduction to blended learning presenting examples of implementation across a broad spectrum of disciplines For faculty unfamiliar with this mode of teaching it illustrates how to address the core challenge of blended learning to link the activities in each medium so that they reinforce each other to create a single unified course and offers models they can adapt Francine Glazer and the contributors to this book describe how they integrate a wide range of pedagogical approaches in their blended courses use groups to build learning communities and make the online environment attractive to students They illustrate under what circumstances particular tasks and activities work best online or face to face and when to incorporate synchronous and asynchronous interactions They introduce the concept of layering the content of courses to appropriately sequence material for beginning and experienced learners and to ensure that students see both the online and the face to face components as being equal in value and devote equal effort to both modalities The underlying theme of this book is encouraging students to develop the skills to continue learning throughout their lives By allowing students to take more time and reflect on the course content blended learning can promote more student engagement and consequently deeper learning It appeals to today s digital natives who are accustomed to using technology to find and share information communicate and collaborate and also enables non traditional students to juggle their commitments more efficiently and successfully This book begins with an introduction by Francine S Glazer This book contains 1 Blended Learning in the Culinary Arts Tradition Meets Technology Carl Behnke 2 Baby Steps to Blended Introduction of a Blended Unit to a Conventional Course Francine S Glazer 3 Teaching a Survey Course in Anthropology Alan Aycock 4 Combining Tradition With Technology Redesigning a Literature Course Tracey M Gau 5 Blended With a Twist 115 Robert Hartwell and Elizabeth F Barkley and 6 Concluding Thoughts on This Volume Francine S Glazer An index is included Foreword by James Rhem
