Moroccan Foreign Policy under Mohammed VI, 1999-2014 Irene Fernandez-Molina, 2015-10-23 This book presents a comprehensive survey of Moroccan foreign policy since 1999. It considers the objectives, actors and decision making processes involved and outlines Morocco's foreign policy activity in key areas such as the international management of the Western Sahara conflict and relations with the other states of North Africa, relations with the European Union especially France and Spain and relations with the United States and the Middle East. The book links the behaviour and discourses analysed to differing conceptions of Morocco's national role on the international scene: champion of national territorial integrity, model student of the EU and good ally of the United States, and shows how these competing approaches to the country's foreign policy enjoy different degrees of domestic consensus and result in different degrees of legitimation for the regime.

Multiculturalism and Minority Rights in the Arab World Will Kymlicka, Eva Pförtl, 2014 Explores the obstacles to multiculturalism and minority rights in Arab states including the history of European manipulation of minority politics.

Global, Regional and Local Dimensions of Western Sahara's Protracted Decolonization Raquel Ojeda-Garcia, Irene Fernández-Molina, Victoria Veguilla, 2016-11-30 This book explores the traces of the passage of time on the protracted and intractable conflict of Western Sahara. The authors offer a multilevel analysis of recent developments from the global to the local scenes including the collapse of the architecture of the UN-led conflict resolution process, the advent of the War on Terror, the Sahara-Sahel area and the impact of the Arab Spring and growing regional security instability. Special attention is devoted to changes in the Western Sahara territory annexed by Morocco and the Sahrawi refugee camps in Algeria. Morocco has adapted its governance and public policies to profound socio-demographic transformations in the territory under its control and has attempted to obtain international recognition for this annexation by proposing an Autonomy Plan. The Polisario Front and Sahrawi nationalists have shifted their strategy and pushed the centre of gravity of the conflict back inwards by focusing on pro-independence activism inside the disputed territory.

Contested States in World Politics D. Geldenhuys, 2009-04-22 This book investigates a phenomenon in world politics that is largely overlooked by scholars: namely, entities lacking international recognition of their status as independent states. It includes case studies on the Eurasian Quartet, Kosovo, Somaliland, Palestine, Northern Cyprus, Western Sahara and Taiwan.

Yousra Abourabi, 2024-05-13 Since the advent of the reign of Mohammed VI in 1999 Morocco has deployed a new continental foreign policy. The Kingdom aspires to be recognized as an emerging African power in its identity as well as in its space of projection. In order to meet these ambitions, the diplomatic apparatus is developing and modernizing while a singular role identity is emerging around the notion of the golden mean. This study presents on an empirical level the conditions of the elaboration and conduct of this Africa policy and analyzes on a theoretical level the evolution of the Moroccan role identity in the international system.
