Handicapped Business Many states have laws that give disabled people the same economic base as non-disabled individuals. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, for example, the law states that any business that has a public or service area is required to make it accessible to disabled people. The law also states that any business that has a public or service area is required to make it accessible to disabled people. The law also states that any business that has a public or service area is required to make it accessible to disabled people.
