Apprenticeship, on the other hand, was not a change in the social class that left the training alone. The apprenticeship system was a way to train a person in a specific trade or profession. It was a way to pass on knowledge and skills from one generation to the next. It was a way to ensure that the next generation had the necessary skills to work in the same trade or profession. It was a way to ensure that the next generation had the necessary skills to work in the same trade or profession.
