against God and against the Jews Under Mother Basilea Schlink the sisters embraced an ideology of collective national guilt According to Schlink a handful of true Christians were called to lead their nation in repentance interceding and making spiritual sacrifices as priests on its behalf and saving it from looming destruction Schlink explained that these ideas were rooted in her reading of the Hebrew Bible in fact Faithful discovers they also bore the influence of German nationalism Schlink s vision resulted in penitential practices that dominated the life of her community While the women of the sisterhood were subject to each other they elevated themselves and their spiritual authority above that of any male leaders They offered female and gender neutral paradigms of self sacrifice as normative for all Christians Mothering the Fatherland shows how the sisters overturned German Protestant norms for gender roles communal life and nationalism in their pursuit of redemption

The Secret of Prayer E. E. Byrum,2014-06-08 BRIEF plain practical dissertations on prayer constitute the subject matter of this timely and helpful volume The author s treatment of his topic is most thoroughgoing He cites and comments on nearly every Scriptural example of prayer and praying men With a rare simplicity of expression and a most attractive sincerity of spirit the characteristics of true prayer both positively and negatively are set forth That the writer speaks not from theory nor from the standpoint of philosophy but as one who really knows the secret of prayer is the ever growing impression as one peruses these pages The reader comes to a fuller realization of what a vital and blessed thing prevailing prayer is and longs to possess and experience more of its power All the stronger does this desire grow as one reads the several unique instances of answered prayer in the author s own experience adding fresh confirmation to the fact that prayer does indeed move the Hand that rules the world We would commend this volume especially to those who feel the need and importance of prayer in their life and yet are not satisfied with their present attainments in this comforting sanctifying and conquering grace Record of Christian Work Volume 32 Prayer, Its Duties and Privileges John Hersey,1854
