Woman ,1944 Byang Kato Aiah Dorkuh Foday-Khabenje,2023-08-04 In this in depth study of the legacy of Byang Kato Dr Foday Khabenje traces his extraordinary life from a boyhood immersed in African traditional religion to his conversion to Christianity as a young man his education in Nigeria and abroad his global leadership within the evangelical church his tragic untimely death and the long lasting impact of his prophetic voice In the realm of African theology Kato is often remembered for the oppositional stance he took towards many of his contemporaries arguing passionately for the dangers of universalism and syncretism and urging the church to place the Bible at the heart of African Christianity Foday Khabenje engages these debates while demonstrating that Kato s contributions to the African church cannot be reduced to polemics His biblical hermeneutics perspectives on African Christian identity and tireless work for the expansion of theological education in Africa are each explored and celebrated along with their implications for the contemporary church in Africa and beyond While nearly fifty years have passed since Kato s death his legacy is still as relevant as ever for a church facing the challenges of secularism and pluralism in the twenty first century In an age that seeks to de emphasize the uniqueness of Christ Kato s testimony of the radical transformation offered by authentic biblical Christianity is good news for us all solo instrument and also by the proliferation of important works which twentieth century composers have written for it For this book Professor Cowling has in mind a readership made up of amateurs as well as students and professional musicians In an opening section she describes the instrument itself its anatomy physics early makers variants development and its bow The early history of the cello is then outlined starting from the sixteenth century origins and continuing to the spread in popularity during the eighteenth century to countries outside Italy The literature of the instrument is next described from the earliest compositions to the work of such twentieth century composers as Elgar Bloch Debussy Rachmaninov Prokofiev Shostakovich and Britten A final section discusses the qualities of some eminent modern cellists and the book ends with the author s conclusions and reflections on her theme Particularly useful are Professor Cowling s list of pieces for piano and cello and of effective transcriptions Jacket Illustrated London News ,1914 Fourth Estate ,1924 Congressional Record United States.
