The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1979 Motocross Saved My Life Brent Worrall, 2019-10-18 In 2011 former Canadian national champion motocross racer Brent Airmail Worrall who had recently returned to the sport after a lengthy absence due to struggles with alcohol gambling and depression was again in a fight to save his own life His shot at redemption and making peace with the sport he loves was cut short by a near fatal crash A mechanical malfunction in mid flight over the track's largest jump sent him spiralling into a nose dive He had just enough time while airborne to say Survive survive survive He broke his back and neck in six places fractured his clavicle sternum and multiple ribs and collapsed his lungs After flat lining on the operating table four times Brent's doctors finally managed to stabilize him He required two blood transfusions and his doctors feared the worst He emerged from hospital a paraplegic given only five to ten years to live due to various complications from his accident After losing the sport he loved many years before to the seedy underworld of depression alcoholism drugs and compulsive gambling he vowed never to let go of his lifeline passion again Brent meticulously takes us through his troubled journey to the eventual promised land where he now sits Along the way he recounts his many inspirational interactions with those who helped mould his character including Rick Hansen on his Man in Motion tour as well as looking into Terry Fox's eyes on his Marathon of Hope. In keeping with his character as an avid sports and history enthusiast Brent takes us back through many pertinent historical events that shaped his life and society as a whole. Two years after his accident Brent was back at the track this time to announce races rather than participate in them. Shortly after that he launched the Canadian Moto Show, a live online talk radio show as well as a magazine with his good friend Kevin Lefebvre. Throughout the process of giving back to the motocross community while also reinventing himself he maintained a position as a senior writer at Motocross Performance Magazine. In 2016 he was nominated for a Coast Mental Health Courage to Come Back award. He continues to reshape his life within the sport he loves, refusing to let any of the formidable obstacles he has faced slow him down. This book is Brent's firsthand account of his journey written in all five senses with the hope that his story will motivate and inspire others to see that any seemingly insurmountable obstacles can be overcome.
