Lilith The Literary Masterpiece Of The Victorian Era:

Lilith George MacDonald, 2014-04-17 Lilith is equal if not superior to the best of Poe the great 20th century poet W H Auden said of this novel but the comparison only begins to touch on the richness density and wonder of this late 19th century adult fantasy novel First published in 1895 inhabiting a universe with the early Yeats George Bernard Shaw and Oscar Wilde not to mention Thomas Hardy this is the story of the aptly named Mr Vane his magical house and the journeys into another world into which it leads him Meeting up with one mystery after another including Adam and Eve themselves he slowly but surely explores the mystery of the human fall from grace and of our redemption Instructed into the ways of seeing the deeper realities of this world seeing in a sense by the light of the spirit the reader and Mr Vane both sense that MacDonald writes from his own deep experience of radiance from a bliss so profound that death s darkness itself is utterly eclipsed in its light James Blish ranked Lilith as one of the great originals saying that its allegory is far from obtrusive and the story proper both tense and decidedly eerie Bleiler described it as a long parabolic narrative heavily laden with Victorian Christian symbolism and noted that critical opinion of the novel was sharply divided Some critics regard it highly for its fine images and verbal flashes Lilith written by the father of fantasy literature George MacDonald is considered among the darkest of MacDonald s works and among the most profound It is a story concerning the nature of life death and salvation Many believe MacDonald is arguing for Christian universalism or the idea that all will eventually be saved The Victorian Age of English Literature Oliphant, 1893 The Victorian Novel Harold Bloom, 2004 Victorian England produces some the the greatest novelists in Western history including Charles Dickens Thomas Hardy and George Eliot Critical analysis focuses on the development of the Victorian novel through the second half of the 19th century Magill's Guide to Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature: Lest darkness fall , 1996 These four volumes cover 791 books or series 238 of them published during the 1980s and 1990s the entries are 1 000 words long for single books and 1 500 for series with a one sentence summary beginning each entry followed by bibliographical information Volume 4 contains an extensive bibliography of critical works on science fiction and fantasy a list of major award winners a genre index Booklist The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance , 1924 No Man's Land Sandra M. Reading Dante Gabriel Rossetti Brian Donnelly,2016-03-03 A revolutionary figure throughout his career Dante Gabriel Rossetti s work provides a distinctly revolutionary lens through which the Victorian period can be viewed Suggesting that Rossetti s work should be approached through his poetry Brian Donnelly argues that it is both inscribed by and inscribes the development of verbal as well as visual culture in the Victorian era In his discussions of modernity aestheticism and material culture he identifies Rossetti as a central figure who helped define the terms through which we approach the cultural productions of this period Donnelly begins by articulating a method for reading Rossetti s poetry that highlights the intertextual relations within and between the poetry and paintings His interpretations of such poems as the Mary s Girlhood sonnets the sonnet sequence The House of Life and The Orchard Pit in relationship to paintings such as The Girlhood of Mary Virgin and Ecce Ancilla Domini shed light on Victorian ideals of femininity on consumer culture and on the role of gender hierarchies in Victorian culture Situating Rossetti s poetry as the key to all of his work Donnelly also makes a case for its centrality in its representation of the dominant discourses of the late Victorian period faith sex consumption death and the nature of representation itself Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company,1978 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960 “The” Athenaeum ,1894
