Lessons, handbook for teachers Walter John Barton, William Louis Bunting, 1923 The teacher's manual of the tonic sol-fa method John Curwen, 1902 Teachers' Guide for the Use of the "600 Set" of Keystone Stereographs and Lantern Slides for Visual Instruction Douglas Clay Ridgley, 1911 The Art of Teaching, and the Teaching of Music: Being the Teacher's Manual of the Tonic Sol-fa Method John Curwen, 1875 Teaching Reading to Black Adolescent Males Alfred W. Tatum, 2023-10-10

The racial achievement gap in literacy is one of the most difficult issues in education today and nowhere does it manifest itself more perniciously than in the case of black adolescent males. Approaching the problem from the inside, author Alfred Tatum brings together his various experiences as a black male student, middle school teacher, and struggling black male readers reading specialist in an urban elementary school and staff developer in classrooms across the nation. His book Teaching Reading to Black Adolescent Males: Closing the Achievement Gap addresses the adolescent shift black males face and the societal experiences unique to them that can hinder academic progress. With an authentic and honest voice, Tatum bridges the connections among theory, instruction, and professional development to create a roadmap for better literacy achievement. He presents practical suggestions for providing reading strategy instruction and assessment that is explicit, meaningful, and culturally responsive, as well as guidelines for selecting and discussing nonfiction and fiction texts with black males. The author's first-hand insights provide middle school and high school teachers, reading specialists, and administrators with new perspectives to help schools move collectively toward the essential goal of literacy achievement for all.

Cultural Cobblestones Lynda Miller, Theresa Steinlage, Mike Printz, 1994. This book describes an interdisciplinary literature-based educational program demonstrating how multiculturalization of a traditional curriculum can move from creating awareness to changing perceptions and instilling new attitudes. Selected studies of African, Native American, Hmong, and Jewish cultures are featured. The book provides 100 student exemplars and models for developing or enhancing a multicultural curriculum at the intermediate or secondary levels. Within the models presented, integration of student learning occurs through hands-on practical applications of the fine arts, language arts, social studies, with the media center serving as the hub for all activity. This book is recommended for school and public librarians, graduate education, library science departments, curriculum specialists, teachers, and anyone who has an interest in enriching and diversifying student learning.

Written late in life, this remarkable book was described by Percy Scholes as offering the most practically valuable study of the art of teaching music in existence The first book of its kind to appear in the language it began by summarising principles common to the teaching of all subject next applying those principles to the teaching of music Even today the thoughtful reader will find himself impressed by Curwen s exposition of general educational principles expressed in jargon free terms and supported by excerpts from the writings of the leading educational thinkers of his day The text has been enlarged by four per cent for ease of reading
