Mathematics (Education) in the Information Age

Stacy A. Costa, Marcel Danesi, Dragana Martinovic, 2020-12-10 This book brings together ideas from experts in cognitive science mathematics and mathematics education to discuss these issues and to present research on how mathematics and its learning and teaching are evolving in the Information Age Given the ever broadening trends in Artificial Intelligence and the processing of information generally the aim is to assess their implications for how math is evolving and how math should now be taught to a generation that has been reared in the Information Age It will also look at the ever spreading assumption that human intelligence may not be unique an idea that dovetails with current philosophies of mind such as posthumanism and transhumanism The role of technology in human evolution has become critical in the contemporary world Therefore a subgoal of this book is to illuminate how humans now use their sophisticated technologies to chart cognitive and social progress Given the interdisciplinary nature of the chapters this will be of interest to all kinds of readers from mathematicians themselves working increasingly with computer scientists to cognitive scientists who carry out research on mathematics cognition and teachers of mathematics in a classroom

Hosting States and Unsettled Guests Jennifer Riggan, Amanda Poole, 2024-02-06 As wealthy countries build walls to keep migrants out countries in the Global South are celebrated for their hospitality towards refugees Hosting States and Unsettled Guests asks the question did these policies enable refugees to consider their new country home Beginning in 2016 Ethiopia promoted local integration economic opportunities and access to education for refugees in order to encourage them to stay long term rather than migrate towards Europe But by 2020 a political overhaul and the outbreak of war in Northern Ethiopia foreclosed these opportunities particularly for Eritrean refugees in Ethiopia How did Eritrean refugees envision their future in light of the discrepancy between promising policies and ongoing instability

Using ethnographic interviews and participant observation with government officials NGOs and refugees in three camps in northern Ethiopia and Addis Ababa Jennifer Riggan and Amanda Poole explore refugee notions of progress care hope and futurity Caught at the intersection of teleological violence and temporal agency refugees endure the present and tenaciously produce a sense of the future even when their efforts to progress are repeatedly challenged An important read Hosting States and Unsettled Guests makes key empirical and theoretical contributions in forced migration studies East African studies anthropology and international education Riggan and Poole deftly shift the focus of refugee studies away from Europe to regions in the Global South to understand the violence of emerging forms of migration deterrence Parliamentary Debates (Hansard), Great Britain.
