

What is Narrative Writing?

Narrative writing is generally thought of as story writing. The main purpose of a narrative text is to entertain the reader, inform or educate. Sometimes narrative can also be used to inform or teach too.

Usually, a narrative will follow a very specific structure including a beginning, middle and end. It will often be written using chronological events and set in the past present or future.

Narrative Writing

Features of a Narrative Text

A narrative text...

- tells a story, usually in chronological order.
- begins with an introduction, to introduce the characters and setting of the story.
- focuses a problem or complication of some sort.
- includes a series of events.
- ends with a resolution.
