Narrative Therapy Training And Supervision:

Couple, Marriage, and Family Therapy Supervision Karin Jordan, 2015-12-02 Marriage and Family Therapy MFT is a profession that is expected to grow rapidly over the next ten years. This timely text provides the essential knowledge base for all facets of supervision in marriage and family therapy that is required to become an AAMFT Approved Supervisor. The book focuses specifically on the distinctive model of supervision used in Marriage and Family Therapy and further examines the unique supervisory issues arising within different approaches to the profession. Distinguished by its use of a single case example across chapters to help clarify how different theories differ and overlap, the book embraces the full range of theoretical approaches in addition to featuring a nuts and bolts approach to the day to day fundamentals of MFT supervision. Grounded in the most up to date literature, the text discusses methods and issues of MFT supervision within multigenerational, structural, cognitive, behavioral, narrative, feminist, integrative, brief, and other supervision models. The text also surveys the most important and emerging settings and populations in which marriage and family therapists work, including medical and post disaster trauma informed practices. It covers legal and ethical issues and discusses how culture, gender, and ethnicity must be considered during the supervision process. The text also addresses how to tailor supervision to the supervisee's developmental level. Examples of common supervision dilemmas vividly demonstrate foundational principles. With contributions from leading marriage and family therapy educators and experienced supervisors, the text is designed for therapists at both the Master's and Doctoral levels who seek the Approved Supervisor Credential and for MFT faculty who teach the AAMFT supervision course. Key Features: Meets the learning requirements for AAMFT mandated courses leading to certification as an approved supervisor. Covers the fundamentals of supervision in the systemic context that lies at the heart of marriage and family therapy. Covers supervision in the major approaches to MFT including cognitive, behavioral, brief, narrative, structural, and other orientations. Provides an illustrative case study across all supervision models to demonstrate the uniqueness and similarities of each approach. Includes coverage of important populations and settings for MFT such as medical and post disasters.

An Intersectional Approach to Sex Therapy Reece M. Malone, Marla Renee

Stewart, Mariotta Gary-Smith, James C. Wadley, 2021-12-20 When a Black Indigenous or racialized individual or relationship works with a sex therapist, a host of cultural circumstances can contribute to intimacy discord and sexual dysfunction. This collection brings together clinicians and educators who share their approaches bridging sex therapy with a client's relationship to their racial, cultural, and ethnic identity. This essential book aims to enhance therapists' supervisory practices and clinical treatments when working with culturally diverse and marginalized populations, fostering greater understanding and awareness. Innovative tools that integrate the impacts of acculturation, minority status, intersectionality, and minority stress are discussed with case studies, demonstrations, and critical questions included. This collection is a necessary read for anyone who is training to be or who is an established sex therapist, marriage and family therapist, relationship counselor, or sexuality educator and consultant      Threads of Hope Susan Dale, 2016-02-22 On 1st October 2012 April Jones aged 5 was abducted from outside her home in the small Welsh market town of Machynlleth This led to the largest police search operation of its kind ever conducted in the UK and a subsequent murder investigation and trial which was scrutinised by the international media This book uses a collaborative narrative research process to explore the lived experiences of one specific group of community members who responded to this event by setting up and running a therapeutic project to support the community between 2012 and 2014 The author weaves together threads of the story taken from her own ethnographic journal and co researcher accounts together with community updates taken from press releases and academic theory to create an evocative narrative account that will enable readers to understand what it may be like to be involved in a therapeutic project of this kind The book highlights some of the challenges and offers suggestions for community leaders therapeutic practitioners and critical incident planners who may be considering setting up support in response to community trauma      The Complete Systemic Supervisor Thomas C.
