Lyrics of Life Fatemeh Keshavarz, 2014-12-09 This imaginative and accessible study of the lyrical humorous social and educational aspects of classical Persian poetry focuses on the works of the master medieval poet Sa di of Shiraz d 1291 one of the funniest most influential and lyrical figures in classical Persian poetry Sa di a prominent ethicist and a devout teacher of virtues stands out for his worldliness his practical teachings and his love for living a wholesome life as well as for his signature elegance and artistry that has compelled critics to call his lyrics perfectly polished diamonds In a language deliberately free of technical jargon Keshavarz argues for the versatility of Sa di s poetic voice and portrays his notion of love as open to multiple perspectives including homoerotic aesthetics She brings to life the worldly wisdom that kept the lyrical adventurous and ethical legacy of Sa di fresh and effective through the passage of time

Nasir Khusraw, the ruby of Badakhshan Alice C. Hunsberger, 2003 Pearls of Persia Alice C. Hunsberger, 2013-01-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Nasir i Khusraw is a major literary figure in medieval Persian culture He was a Muslim philosopher poet travel writer and Ismaili da i who lived a thousand years ago in the lands known today as Afghanistan Iran and Tajikistan Although known in the West mainly for his Safarnama or travelogue which describes his seven year journey from Khurasan in the eastern Islamic lands to Cairo the city of the Fatimid imam caliphs his poetry and ideas are less familiar Yet over the centuries Persian speaking lands have consistently ranked him as one of the finest poets of all time But today even among those who know Nasir i Khusraw s poetry few understand the philosophical and Ismaili concepts the poet expounds And while mystical and epic genres of Persian poetry are memorized and studied the genre of philosophical poetry in Persian remains basically unexplored This collection of studies seeks to redress the balance Originally presented at a conference at the School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS University of London in 2005 to commemorate the millenary of Nasir i Khusraw s birth the papers published here examine his poetry both for philosophical meaning and poetic method They address a variety of topics ranging from metaphysics cosmology and ontology to prophecy as well as rhythm and structure and analysis of individual poems and authorship

Shi'ism Hamid Dabashi, 2012-05-07 For a Western world anxious to understand Islam and in particular Shi ism this book arrives with urgently needed information and critical analysis Hamid Dabashi exposes the soul of Shi ism as a religion of protest successful only when in a warring position and losing its legitimacy when in power Dabashi makes his case through a detailed discussion of the Shi i doctrinal foundations a panoramic view of its historical unfolding a varied investigation into its visual and performing arts and finally a focus on the three major sites of its contemporary contestations Iran Iraq and Lebanon In these states Shi ism seems to have ceased to be a sect within the larger context of Islam and has instead emerged to claim global political attention Here we see Shi ism in its combative mode reminiscent of its traumatic birth in early Islamic history Hezbollah in Lebanon claims Shi ism as do the militant insurgents in Iraq the ruling Ayatollahs in Iran and the masses of youthful demonstrators rebelling against their reign All declare their active loyalties to a religion of protest that has defined them and their ancestry for almost fourteen hundred years Shi sm A Religion of Protest attends to the explosive conflicts in the Middle East with an abiding attention to historical facts cultural forces religious convictions literary and artistic nuances and metaphysical details This timely book offers readers a bravely intelligent history of a world religion

Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Towards a Shi'i Mediterranean Empire Aḥmad ibn 'Alī Maqrīzī, 2009-07-30 The Imam caliph Al Mu izz li Din Allah founder of Cairo transformed the emergent Fatimid state from a regional power of limited influence to an impressive Mediterranean empire whose authority extended from the shores of the Atlantic to the Indian Ocean His vision and dynamism contributed to the high watermark of Fatimid success in establishing a Shi I empire which contributed to the cultural and intellectual efflorescence of the Muslim world The writings of the erudite 15th Mamluk scholar Taqi al Din al Maqrizi presented here for the first time in English document this Fatimid triumph of the Shi i and provide one of the most comprehensive accounts of the era In this text the only complete history of the Fatimids written by a medieval Sunni historian al Maqrizi demonstrates a critical discernment regarding the value and limitations of his sources that is unusual among medieval Muslim historians of the time book jacket A Companion to Muslim Ethics Ayn B. Sajoo, 2010-11-15 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Socrates famously said that the unexamined life is not worth living In keeping with this dictum taking ethics seriously means engaging with the real world where the human sense of right and wrong is daily tested At their best all faith traditions are challenged by such testing and if faith inspired ethics are thought to govern the whole of life their guiding values need constantly to be interpreted by the believer to achieve a practical result In the Muslim tradition this is what the Qur'an really amounts to a call to strive for belief with a social conscience For fourteen centuries Muslim scholars have grappled with the implications of that call in matters of law social practice and theology And in our own time the quests for civil society and the rule of law have much to do with the response given to these ethical questions A Companion to Muslim Ethics explores Islam's core conception of the good shared with other great traditions Leading experts examine issues such as gender equality nonviolence dispute resolution the environment health and finance The volume will appeal to all those interested in how reason faith and circumstance shape difficult moral choices in an increasingly globalised world The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com Open access was funded by The Institute of Ismaili Studies LTD
