Law Enforcement Unisa:

Collaborative Policing Peter C. Kratcoski, Maximilian Edelbacher, 2015-10-05 The chapters in this book reveal that police education training and practices are now closely tied to collaboration between police academics professional practitioners and community agencies and such collaboration is described and evaluated Dilip K Das PhD Founding President International Police Executive Symposium IPES and founding GUIDE to EARNING LAW and LAW-RELATED DEGREES NONTRADITIONALLY Kristofer SENECA, 2009-09-26 Has it been your dream to become a paralegal or lawyer Perhaps you have a desire to obtain a degree or further your education in one of the many law or law related fields Yet due to your schedule or circumstances you simply cannot attend a residential school full time Well this guide is your answer It contains over 400 schools offering Distance Learning in such programs Also included in this Guide are sections covering Designations Paralegal Exams Admission to Law School Studying Law Qualifying for the Bar Bar Associations Law Societies and much more The Schools are located through out the World and their programs can be completed with little or no residency Change and Reform in Law Enforcement Scott W. Phillips, Dilip K. Das, 2016-10-26 This book provides broad exposure to a variety of policing reforms that have not received adequate attention It includes information and examples from different countries regarding efforts to change aspects of policing that are problematic or involve changes in the way crimes are committed Some of the efforts to improve the police are relatively recent i e using social media and some areas of policing that seem to require frequent attention i e working with the public Servamus, 2008 Water, Governance, and Crime Issues Katja Eman, Gorazd Meško, Lorenzo Segato, Massimo Migliorini, 2020-07-23 This book provides an overview of crimes involving water including pollution illegal dumping and supply chain disruption from a criminological perspective It examines a multifaceted issue from a comparative policy perspective supplemented with individual case studies to provide insights on the magnitude of the problem as well as possible solutions and policy recommendations As growing populations and economic sectors continue to put unprecedented pressures on water supplies the book aims to contribute to a better understanding of the problem in order to ensure the sustainability long term viability and equitable use of this essential resource The first part of the volume examines criminological and policy perspectives including an overview of regulatory approaches privatization of water resources and the scope of the criminal problem in this area The second part presents informative case studies from a variety of different regional and social contexts Finally the editors present an outlook in policy and enforcement improvements This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology criminal justice public policy and comparative law as well as those studying environmental regulations and sustainability Water Governance and Crime Issues is a much needed addition to the growing original contributions of green criminology This volume captures the complex landscape of water crimes including the numerous disparities and inequalities of there being too much water in some places and too little in others amongst the many complexities The edited collection also covers conceptual issues i e water as a human right as well as practical hurdles i.e. the challenges in keeping statistics on offences and real world examples. Many of the chapters are likely to introduce readers to new issues and the interplay with a myriad of traditional problems: corruption, organised crime, privatisation and terrorism. I agree with the editors and authors that water crime issues deserve further scientific study and this provides a solid starting point. Dr Tanya Wyatt, University of Northumbria, Population growth and urbanization, more frequent droughts due to climate change, the privatization of and unequal access to water resources and increasing water pollution are just some of the contemporary and future challenges relating to water crimes. Water Governance and Crime Issues speaks to the scientific relevance of water for green criminology as well as the policy implications of water crimes. Several of the cases in this edited book refer to countries and regions we do not usually hear about and yet are perfect illustrations of the challenges faced in governing and studying water crimes. Dr Lieselot Bisschop, Erasmus School of Law, Navorsingsbulletin, Institute for Research Development (Human Sciences Research Council), 1983. Abstracts on Police Science, 1975. An international abstracting service covering police science, the forensic sciences and forensic medicine. The A to Z of Careers in South Africa, 2006. A History of the Durban City Police, Jack Jewell, 1989. Sexual Offences, South African Law Commission, 1999. Navorsingsverslag, 1994. Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 2000. Corruption and the South African Police Service, Andrew Faull, 2007. Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education, Bethuel Sibongiseni Ngcamu, 2025-10-16. Using an interpretivist approach, this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices. Contextualizing the author's practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades, this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems, structures and functions that make South Africa's formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption. In the midst of highly contested, divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media, chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches, robust data sets and qualitative face-to-face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality. Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally, this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education, higher education management and administration and education policy and politics. Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book. Perspectives on Thought Leadership for Africa's Renewal, Kondlo, Kwandiwe, 2014-05-05. This book outlines perspectives of emerging and established African scholars on what one could describe as the debate on leadership and the articulation of the life of the mind in Africa's socio-economic, political and cultural life from the time of independence to date. The papers contained in the book cover the following thematic areas Alternative Leadership Paradigm for Africa s Advancement African Perspectives on Globalisation and international relations Pan Africanism and the African Renaissance Scientific Technological and Cultural Dimensions of African Development The first section deals with alternative leadership paradigms for Africa s advancement It also debates the thin line separating management studies from leadership studies and untangles the hermeneutic complexities in the term leadership Section two examines among other things the crucial challenge of globalisation and public ethics and others African perspectives The section also interrogates the current complexities and credibility deficits in the global governance of trade and towards the end engages philosophical questions about conscience and consciousness in African development and progress The debates in section three continue to section four and focus on the overall issues of language and liberation the significance of Multi Inter and Trans Disciplinary Approaches in the analysis of the African continent appropriate indigenous paradigms for promoting the African renaissance as well as a series of debates on the meaning and prospects of regional integration in Africa s renewal This provides just a snapshot of a very wide ranging and interesting debate contained in the publication Policing in Emerging Democracies Gorazd Meško,2007 Pace ,1994

The South African Journal of Environmental Law and Policy ,1995 University Education in the Republic of South Africa Cornelius Johannes Stephanus Coetzee,Caroline Geggus,1980 Criminology & Penology Abstracts ,1988 An international abstracting service covering etiology of crime and juvenile delinquency the control and treatment of offenders criminal procedures and the administration of justice Abstracts of journal articles and monographs Covermaterial from psychiatric literature as well as from criminological sources
