World Provence Alessandra Quaglia, Jean-Francis Quaglia, 2007-11-01 French cuisine is considered among the world's best but its traditional ingredients like butter and cream aren't always appropriate for today's heart healthy diets. New World Provence is a new style French cookbook designed with contemporary North American audiences in mind featuring healthy easy to find ingredients prepared using traditional French techniques tweaked with the home cook in mind. The book includes beautiful yet simple recipes that take advantage of meats, seafood and vegetables abundant in North American markets in keeping with their contemporary flair. Pan cultural influences abound yet all the while the recipes remain faithful to French traditions. Authors Jean Francis and Alessandra Quaglia are the husband and wife chefs and owners of Provence and Provence Marinaside two fine dining establishments in Vancouver. Their recipes reflect not only North American sensibilities but familial ones as well. They are the parents of two young sons and Jean Francis' mother owns the famed Le Patalain restaurant in Marseilles, France. These relationships pervade the book which reveals how a common love and respect for food can be passed on from generation to generation from the old world to the new. The book features thirty six stunning full color photographs and over 120 recipes including prawns with chickpea galette, whole rabbit barbecue, bean and wild mushroom ragout, fresh crab with tomatoes and fresh herbs, roasted vegetable tart, poached sea urchin on bread and new style bouillabaisse.

Provence, 2009 A Table in Provence Leslie Forbes, 1990 An illustrated collection of authentic recipes from the Provence region of France, an area renowned for its herbs and vegetables. Forbes's book is punctuated by her observations, conversations and local gossip. The author also wrote A Table in Tuscany.

French Riviera Tourist Guide (Guide touristique Côte d'Azur) Nicolae Sfetcu, 2016-01-10 Bilingual English French Book. Livre bilingue anglais français. French Riviera is one of the first modern resort areas. It began as a winter health resort at the end of the 18th century. With the arrival of the railway it became the playground and vacation spot of British, Russian and other aristocrats such as Queen Victoria and King Edward VII when he was Prince of Wales. In the summer it also played home to many members of the Rothschild family. In the first half of the 20th century it was frequented by artists and writers including Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, Edith Wharton, Somerset Maugham and Aldous Huxley as well as wealthy Americans and Europeans. After World War II it became a popular tourist destination and convention site. Many celebrities such as Elton John and Brigitte Bardot have homes in the region. The French Riviera is a major yachting and cruising area with several marinas along its coast. According to the Cote d'Azur Economic Development Agency each year the Riviera hosts 50% of the world's superyacht fleet with 90% of all superyachts visiting the region's coast at least once in their lifetime. As a tourist centre it benefits from 300 days of sunshine per year, 115 kilometres (71 mi) of coastline and beaches, 18 golf courses, 14 ski resorts and 3 000 restaurants. Although the Riviera is famous for the glamour of St Tropez, Monaco or the Cannes Film Festival there are many other less well known attractions such as the perched villages of Eze and Gourdon, the perfumeries of Grasse and the glass blowers of Biot, the potters in Vallauris. The Riviera has been the inspiration for many well known artists such as Picasso and many of
